Senate Votes Filibuster Curb On Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate voted today, in a history-shattering move, to choke off the 75-day old Southern filibuster against the civil rights bill.

Each senator's time to debate the bill and all amendments will now be limited to one hour. This appears to assure Senate passage of the far-reaching bill, possibly before the end of next week.

The House passed the bill on Feb. 10 by a vote of 290-130. The Senate has been battling over it since March 9, with Southern opponents mounting a record - breaking filibuster against it.

The Senate's public galleries were packed as the crucial vote on cloture was taken. Tight security was maintained around the Capitol as additional persons pressed for a chance to get in.

The vote followed an all-night session of the Senate at which Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., made a marathon speech attacking the civil rights bill and urging his colleagues not to shut off the debate.

The vote to apply the Senate's debate - limiting cloture rule was 71 to 29. This was four more votes than the required two-thirds majority.

Byrd began his speech at 7:38 p.m. and continued until 9:52 a.m. When he finally quit, the Senate took an eight-minute recess, then went back into session. It had agreed Tuesday to meet at 10 a.m. today.

Since the adoption of the cloture rule in 1917, all previous attempts to use it to cut off filibuster against a civil rights bill had failed.

Leaders of both parties became convinced in the face of the all-out opposition of the Dixie forces to the present bill that debate-limitation had to be obtained if the bill was to pass.

Just before the vote, Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois introduced the leaders' substitute bill worked out with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Overnight, the substitute had been revised further to include the jury trial amendment adopted 51-48 in the Senate Tuesday.

The adoption of the amendment, sponsored by Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., was credited with winning some crucial Republican votes for cloture.

Leadership hopes of mustering the two-thirds majority were bolstered by the Senate's rejection Tuesday of three amendments by substantial margins after a jury trial amendment was adopted by 51 to 48 count.

A chance to vote on the amendments before the cloture showdown was demanded by a group of Republican senators, led by Sen. Bourke B. Hickelooper of Iowa, whose suport was regarded as essential if cloture was to be obtained.

Hickenlooper, chairman of the Senate GOP policy committee, said after the amendments were acted on that he would vote for

2,000 Flee From Flood In Montana

Toll Hits 30, Many Without Homes In Widespread Areas

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (AP) —Flood waters chased at least 2,000 persons from their homes here Tuesday night after leaving 30 or more dead and hundreds homeless upstream.

Gov. Tim Babcock estimated damage from the flood, Montana's worst, at $10 million. President Johnson declared seven northwestern counties a disaster area.

In the northwest, hit first by the three-day flood, waters receded and rescue teams started mopping up.

The Sun River crested 11 feet over its flood stage of 12 feet at midnight in this city of 70,000. A spokesman for the Air Force and National Guard's rescue operations estimated 2,000 to 3,000 persons were evacuated from homes here and in the flooded areas to the west and north.

Tom Sullivan, manager of a Red Cross shelter, said he had made records of about 1,300 persons evacuated from homes west of Great Falls and from an exclusive residential area surrounding a country club and golf course. The shelter is in West Side Junior High School, where more than 200 residents slept Tuesday night.

Air Force teams said they rescued at least 200 persons from rural areas. The Air Force was using Malmstrom Air Force Base at Great Falls for a headquarters for 11 helicopters and other craft.

Pilots made 38 flights Tuesday and were prepared to take additional supplies to flood victims evacuated to other areas.

Ohioville Woman, 24, Spares 5th

Wife Chases Mate With Knife Before Quadruple Slaying

A slender 24-year-old Ohioville mother shot to death four of her five children early today at their home following the climax of a long-standing bitter quarrel with her husband in which she chased him with a kitchen knife.

Mrs. Mary Zlatovich was being questioned in the Midland Borough police station late this morning concerning the deaths of the four children, ranging in age from 2 to 4 years old.

Husband In Shock

Police found the distraught mother sitting in a chair in the home, just south of the main part of Ohioville, holding her fifth child, John Edward, 8 months old, who was unharmed.

"No, no, don't take my baby," she cried as officers lifted the child from her arms.

5th Spared—No Bullets

Beaver County Coroner John Colavincenzo said the woman told him she would have shot the baby, but ran out of cartridges for the .32 - caliber pistol.

Gene and Gary were found in their bunk beds in the partly constructed home, and the younger boy and girl were found in their single cribs.

All four were shot through the heart.

Officers said the brown-haired, slightly built mother and her husband had a violent argument early this morning in which she chased him from the home.

Domestic Fight Erupts

It was apparently the continuation of a verbal battle between the pair which erupted late last night.

Officers said the husband ran out of the house after she brandished a knife about 6 a. m.

About 6:27, Ohioville Borough Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich, brother of the husband, received a telephone call from the mother in which she sobbed, "'I did it, I did it'."

Chief Zlatovich notified Industry Police Chief Mike Hayden and Midland police and hurried to his brother's home which is about 2½ miles from his. Midland's Sgt. Vince D'Itri and Sgt. George Tepovich were dispatched.

When officers walked in, she was in the chair. Chief Zlatovich took the gun from her, and Sgt. D'Itri took the infant, which was placed temporarily in the custody of a neighbor.

Shocked By Slayings

Her husband, officers said, came from the woods where he had been since the earlier flight, and went into shock when he heard of the slayings.

The quadruple murders were the latest in a series of tragedies which have followed both the man and wife.

His first wife took her own life with a deer rifle about eight years ago in the same house. Police said the present wife, who is originally from Hamlin,

Low Bid Considered

St. Clair Project Still May Be Let

The State Highway Department may award a contract for rebuilding of outer St. Clair Ave., despite the fact the lower of two bids received Tuesday was $32,188 over the state's estimate, four municipal officials said today following their return from the bid-opening session at Columbus.

If the state decides to proceed on the basis of yesterday's bids — rather than advertising the project again — it would mean an increase of $10,000 to $16,000 in the city's share, depending upon which of two alternate offers the state accepts, the officials said.

DATA ON the bids was furnished this morning by Mayor Merrill D. Hall, Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, Engineer George S. Bloomgren and Solicitor Joseph Cooper, who returned late last night from Columbus.

The mayor said Council has been asked to meet informally tonight at 8 in his office to receive a full report and presumably to discuss whether the city would be able to provide an additional $10,000 to $16,000 for its share if the state decides to go ahead with the project.

The lower of two base bids was filed yesterday by Herman Brothers, Inc., of Youngstown. Its offer of $797,788 was $32,188 over the state estimate of $765,600 for the actual construction.

BUT HERMAN also supplied an alternate bid of approximately $785,788 specifying concrete pipe rather than vitrified pipe for the drainage system that will be included in the project.

Since the offer specifying vitrified pipe is roughly $32,000 over the state's estimate and since the city would be expected to pick up the check for half of the additional cost, the municipality's share would be boosted by $16,000 if the state accepted the higher of Herman's offers.

But if the state accepted the quotation specifying concrete pipe, the price would be only $20,000 over the estimate and the city's additional share would be approximately $10,000.

COOPER, who acted as principal spokesman in the local official's press conference in the mayor's office, denied emphatically that it is a foregone conclusion the state will reject yes-

Clear Sailing Now Seen For Goldwater

Nixon Attempts To Stir Nomination Fight Held Failure

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The annual Governors Conference, which has had all the aspects of a miniature Republican convention, ends today with Sen. Barry Goldwater galloping almost unchallenged toward the GOP presidential nomination.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon tried hard to stir up a nomination fight that some of his critics thought was aimed at opening the way for Nixon himself to run against President Johnson as a compromise choice.

But none of the GOP governors who had claimed that Goldwater's views are not in the mainstream of Republican thinking wanted to take on the senator.

Latest to bow out was Gov. George Romney of Michigan. He announced through his press secretary Tuesday that he would not become an active candidate. Romney said he would accept a draft, but wouldn't go back on a 1962 commitment to Michigan voters not to seek national office this year.

This announcement came after Nixon said he had urged Romney to run, and Romney said he had been urged by some fellow governors to make the race and would consider it.

Cooler Weather Due After Sizzling 90's

Those sizzling temperatures that ranged close to 90 Tuesday for the hottest weather this season appear to be tapering off and tonight's low will be much cooler and Thursday will be more moderate.

The downtown had a reading of 76 at 6 a. m. today—a mark usually associated with a spring day's high — and tonight's will be 50 to 56 degrees. Today's high may not go much above 80. Montgomery Dam at Ohioview reported an official 88 as the high yesterday but household thermometers rose to 90 or more late in the afternoon.

Brisk breezes early last night helped ease the heat and humidity. The fair weather will prevail through tomorrow with the cooling trend.

Former Area Man Dies Of Crash Injury

Services will be held Friday for a former Pughtown area resident who died Tuesday morning in Michigan City, Ind., of injuries received when his car and a tractor - trailer rig collided.

Patrick E. Grace, 24, of Michigan City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Grace of Park Meadows near Pughtown, expired about 9 a. m. of apparent brain damage while en route to a hospital from a medical center.

A former Weirton resident who was a passenger in the car, Garnel Earley Jr., 22, was injured, not seriously.

The accident happened while Mr. Grace and Earley were en route to their jobs at the National Steel Co. plant in Michigan City.

Earley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garnel Earley of Weirton, sustained a whiplash injury and abrasions and bruises.

A graduate of Chester High School in 1958, Mr. Grace moved to Michigan City three years ago.

Besides his parents, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Carol Garrison Grace, formerly of New Cumberland, and two daughters, Lorri Ann and Wendy Sue, all at home; two sisters, Suzan Grace and Sheila Grace of Pughtown, his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Guy Lyons of New Cumberland, and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Ida Grace of Weirton. Mr. Grace was a member of the Notre Dame Catholic Church in Michigan City.

Requiem High Mass will be held Friday morning at 10 at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in New Cumberland by Fr. Innocent J. Koncnik. Friends may call at the Turley Funeral Home in New Cumberland Thursday, where the Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p. m.

Chamber Advised

Plans Advanced For Chester Hill

The West Virginia State Road Commission is moving ahead with plans to construct so-called climbing lanes to expedite upbound traffic on the Route 30 Hill back of Chester and will be ready to acquire rights-of-way for the project late this year, the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce was advised Tuesday afternoon.

A progress report on the project was given the Chamber board at its monthly meeting in a letter which the North Hancock County Development Organization received from Burl A. Sawyers, comissioner of the SRC at Charleston.

IT WAS the latest development in an exchange of correspondence between Sawyers and the Chamber and the development group. The letter from Sawyers which was read yesterday was in reply to new reminders of the hazards of the highway stretch sent him May 22 after the latest in a series of big truck crashes.

Sawyers said the commission is considering construction of the so-called climbing lanes and at the same time it is attempting to determine whether a four-lane highway should be built. Because of the hazards posed by the stretch, the SRC may build the climbing lanes soon as a safety measure and then continue with its long-range plans for a four-lane highway, he said.

Sawyers' letter, relayed to the Chamber by the development group, said in part:

"AS NOTED in an editorial in the East Liverpool Review of May 21, we are making a study to determine whether a four-lane highway is justified or whether climbing lanes would be adequate.

"A survey has been prepared and plans are 25 per cent complete for providing the climbing lanes. However, if a four-lane facility is warranted, then a relocation of a portion of this highway will be necessary.

"We are continuing with development of plans for climbing lanes in the event a four-lane highway is not justified. Due to the high rate of accidents on this route, it may be necessary to construct these climbing lanes regardless of the justification of the four - lane highway, since we will be ready to acquire rights-of-way late this year for the climbing lanes, whereas it will take consider-

EAST PALESTINE — Marine Pfc. Fred Schreckengost, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schreckengost of 640 Evergreen Dr., is reported missing from his base in Viet Nam, according to the Defense Department.

He has been in the View Nam since last fall, and has been in the service for almost two years.

He was last seen leaving the base with another Marine, according to a telegram received by his parents Tuesday night.

'Confession' Told Jury At Murder Trial

State Rests After Presenting Signed Young's Statement

NEW CUMBERLAND — Prosecutor Floyd R. Tarr rested his case Tuesday at 3:50 p. m. in the murder trial of Robert M. Young, 34, accused of the shooting of a neighbor and business partner, George Merkich, last Aug. 3.

The jury of 10 men and two women heard additional testimony of defense witnesses as the trial entered its third day in Hancock County Circuit Court.

The state rested after submitting as evidence a signed confession of the defendant and a letter from Mrs. Young to Merkich, indicating a "romance" between the two.

Cp. C. W. Tighe of West Virginia State Police testified he obtained the statement from Young after the defendant surrendered voluntarily at the sheriff's office Aug. 3. He said Young gave the statement voluntarily, and signed it voluntarily.

Read aloud to the jury by Atty. Don Donell, assistant prosecutor, the statement related that Young said he went to the Merkich home and remembered shooting him while Merkich stood in the doorway.

According to the statement, Young went upstairs in his home after work Aug. 3 and found his wife writing a letter to Merkich. It said Mrs. Young confessed

Midland Man Freed On Bond In Shooting

Clifford Edwards, 356 Ohio Ave., Midland, was released on $2,000 bond Tuesday evening after being jailed earlier in the day on a charge of assault with intent to kill, following the wounding of a 53-year-old neighbor during an argument.

John E. Price, 344 Ohio Ave., remains in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with a gunshot wound of the left side of the face.

A hearing for Edwards was set for Friday before Squire Paul McGeehan of Midland.

Goldwater Eyeing Four In East As Running Mate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater—standing on the threshold of the Republican presidential nomination — is eying four Eastern GOP leaders as he thinks about a running mate.

To his closest associates, Goldwater has mentioned these names as possible vice-presidential choices:

—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton.

—Rep. William E. Miller of New York.

—Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio.

Goldwater hasn't ruled anybody in or out of the running, a source close to the Arizona senator said today.

But Goldwater has said he thinks the Republican National Convention will want to balance the ticket—if he heads it—with a moderate Republican from the East.

The four men associates say Goldwater has mentioned all fit that pattern.

Publicly, Goldwater usually bypasses questions about a vice-presidential choice. "I'm looking for delegates, not vice presidents," is his stock reply.

He has talked about Scranton, suggesting the Pennsylvania governor would be well advised to consider the vice-presidential nomination.

That way, Goldwater said Sunday, if the ticket lost, the governor would be in a position to capture the presidential nomination in 1968.

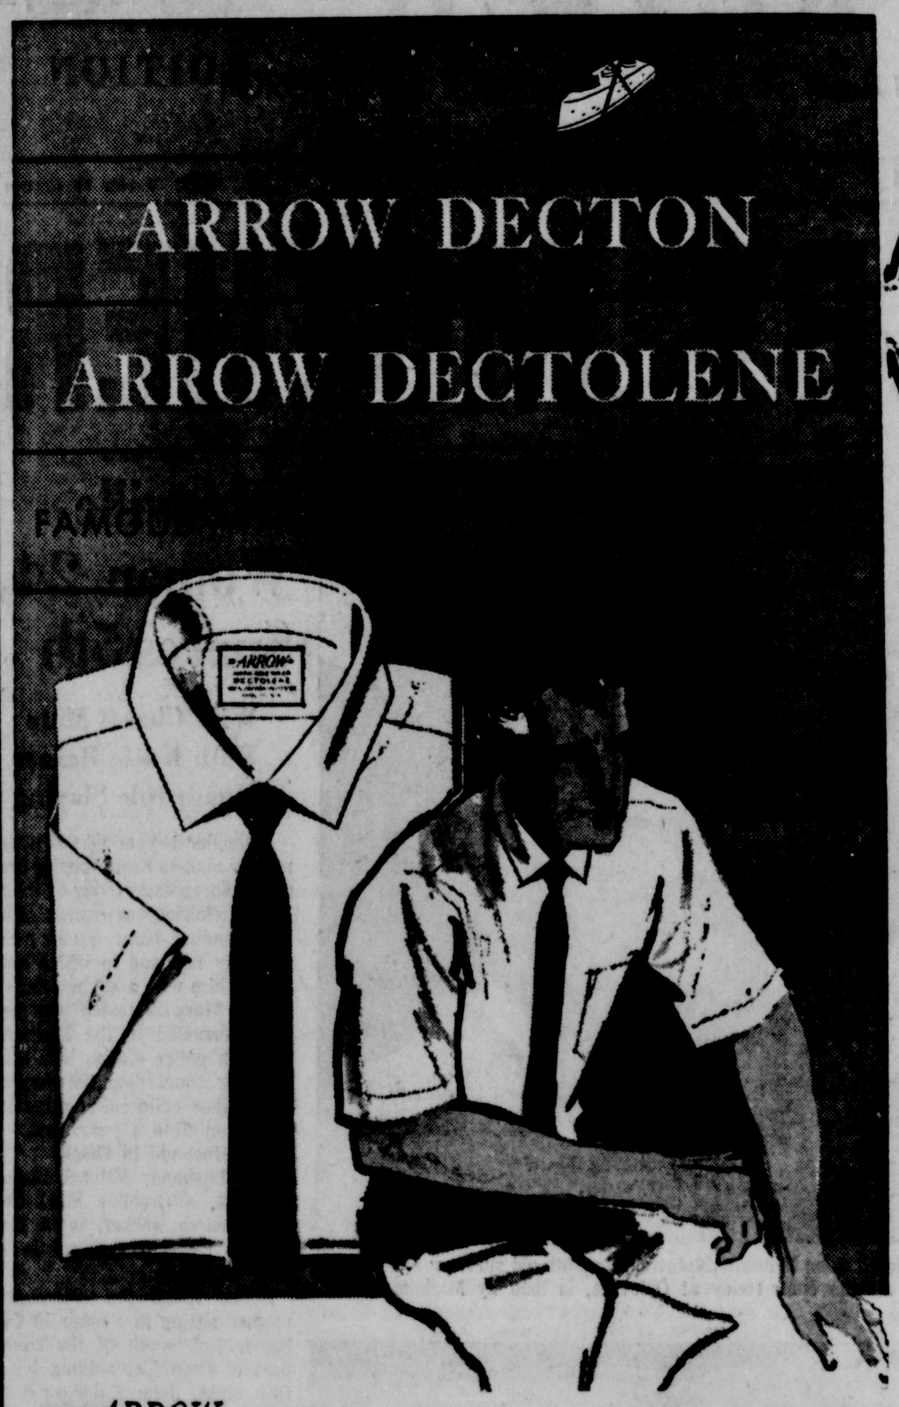

Scranton questioned whether a ticket paring him with Goldwater would make sense. He said they would disagree on how best to implement some Republican principles.

But Goldwater described their areas of disagreement as very minor.

How It All Began

No more stirring denunciation of lopsided government power ever will be made than former President Eisenhower's slam-bang indictment before the Governors Conference in Cleveland.

The former chief of our federal bureaucracy didn't have a good word to say for it. Not only did he urge governors to quit leaning on it as a source of money but also to weaken its authority through constitutional amendments.

He even urged members of Congress to curtail their prerogatives by giving more prerogatives to the executive branch, though how this would whittle away federal influence was not explained.

The former president was in no mood or need to explain. His mission was to tell the governors what they didn't want to hear and had no intention of taking to heart anyway. He admitted this by telling about his own failure to shift responsibility from Washington to state capitals while he was in the White House.

AS PRESIDENT, Dwight Eisenhower did not "slow the march on Washington." He will do no better as a former president. This is deplorable. It bodes ill for the future of the Republic. But it is unavoidable, and the thing that makes it unavoidable is the federal government's power to impose taxes without direct consent.

This makes Washington the "sugar daddy" of the Republic. It puts every state and every locality on a string to be manipulated by politicians who know how to twist money out of the federal establishment.

Elected public officials stay in favor by spending money, and Washington is a key-club gold mine for every one of them — a bottomless source of wherewithal for expressways, airports, buildings, paving streets, digging ditches, dredging creeks, putting up new buildings — not to mention multibillion moon-shot projects and miscellaneous boondoggles that pad regional payrolls.

OUR FORMER president couldn't have stated the case for a return to state and local responsibility better than he stated it in Cleveland. The federal government should cut its budget to the bone. But it won't.

In 1954, President Eisenhower was willing to settle for $65 billion. He asked for $80 billion in 1960. Meanwhile, the national debt had risen from $271,259,000,000 in 1954 to $286,330,000,000 in 1960, representing the accumulated deficits of the Eisenhower era.

As president, Mr. Eisenhower was powerless to stop expansion of federal spending. As a former president, he is powerless for the same reason.

The people initiating spending programs don't want to stop not as long as Washington doesn't have to ask the people's consent to soak them with taxes. Let the people vote on federal taxes and Washington will be as prudent as a spinster living on old-age benefits.

Backlash

Ten years from now, perhaps less, appraisals of the newest legal gimmick to help women workers will be in order. If a civil rights bill passes with a provision equalizing job opportunities for men and women that will be appraised, too.

But the gimmick going into effect on Thursday is the Equal Pay Act of 1963, providing that no employer subject to the wage and hour provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act can discriminate on account of sex in payment of wages for equal work on jobs requiring equal skill, effort and responsibility.

Will experience under this law prove beneficial to women, or will there be a blacklash to make them rue the day it finally was passed by Congress. The truth is, there have been two categories of jobs for women—those on which they could command high pay and those on which they were glad to settle for lower pay in order to hold the job.

The first category will not be affected by the new law, because these are jobs women can do as well or better; they are in competition with one another. But the second category will be affected, because these are jobs women hold because they are willing to work for wages that make the jobs feasible. They are competing with economics.

In 10 years will women have lost more jobs than they gained as the result of the new law? Will the net effect merely be to subsidize the mechanization and automation of more employment, to keep overhead from going ever higher?

Good Previews

Summer doesn't make its official entry until June 20, but the season is well underway with a full measure of heat, humidity, picnics, swimming, vacationitis, weeds, house painting, boating and the annual nuttiness.

The outdoor activities have already brought more accidents involving falls, power mowers, games and the usual blood letting of do-it-yourselfers.

Idle hours have provided some of the antics such as the hoax of the "Martians" north of Lisbon this week.

Political arguments are punctuating conservations, from the national party level to local union electioneering.

Motorists have been meeting the hot weather standard with a full quota of ringing collisions and speed limit violations.

But the roses are blooming, the tomatoes are climbing, the grandchildren will be visiting soon, the sun shines brightly and it promises to be a lovely summer, with such a wonderful start.

Foreign Aid In Practice

One of the standing puzzlements of Congress is the foreign aid issue, which draws affirmative support on showdown votes but is lambasted the rest of the time.

There is no popular support for foreign aid, even though every administration has asked for and been given multi-billion-dollar appropriations to sustain a foreign aid policy. What has been the trouble?

A group headed by Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the Johns Hopkins University, has reported on this, to the effect that foreign aid in practice never has been explained properly to U.S. taxpayers. Dr. Eisenhower's group is called the Critical Issues Council. It is part of the Republican Citizens Committee.

The council warns that the program will perish unless its backers tell taxpayers more about it, first having tightened up the program to make it defensible. Its report suggests the program in its present form is not defensible; that it lacks firm principles and worst of all has been used for short-range political purposes in some instances, instead of long-range policy.

The program has become imbued in and out of Congress, the report said, with a "sense of confusion, frustration and fatigue." The council might have added one more thought.

It is the thought that foreign aid has been an executive project, carried out with legislative compliance. There has been too much secrecy and too little disclosure. The program has not commanded legislative confidence, therefore has not commanded popular confidence.

The moral: Programs consistent with the American principle of constant and critical scrutiny end up under a cloud. What the American people don't know always makes them suspicious.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

Don't be puzzled about poverty in Appalachia. It can overtake any of us, anytime, anywhere if our jobs are wiped out by "more efficient methods," which is what happened to the coal miners in Appalachia.

I join millions of my fellow Americans in admiration for Dwight D. Eisenhower as an outstanding American citizen, but I do not give him credit for any more political acumen now than I did when he knew so little about politics he was given a presidential assistant, Sherman Adams, to take care of all political decisions.

Pope Paul's criticism of industrialists for taking a too materialistic view of their position and neglecting their social responsibilities will have heavy impact, especially in Italy. Karl Marx's reviled "dialectical materialism" has been embraced as affectionately by capitalists with no social conscience as by conscienceless practitioners of socialism-communism.

The sad recalling of incidents about World War II on and after D-day 20 years ago brings to mind the saddest World War II incidents I knew about first-hand —two young friends of ours, one blown to bits by a land mine on Omaha Beach, the other riddled from head to toe in the Battle of the Bulge — neither with a chance to do anything but absorb a tiny fraction of the violence of mechanized warfare that kills and maims wantonly.

The whistling - in - the - dark cheeriness of baseball magnates depresses me. They're glossing over the cold fact fans will not turn out to see baseball for itself but only for teams in contention for the pennant. That means most teams will fail to draw crowds.

The wonders of supermarketing never cease for me, on the occasions when I push the cart and select items never tried before. The latest novelty was a potato concoction I thought was called a "pirogue," but my dictionary says a pirogue is "any canoelike boat." I'll have to save the package for reference if I find this goody again in the frozen food section.

The lady whose alarm clock I get up early by reminds me our favorite horticulturist warned us late last summer of what I have been complaining about early this summer — that the drought would kill grass and trees. In many places where grass formerly was heavy, nothing survived but weeds. Half a dozen trees at the Twillery were killed outright or damaged so severely they will have to be cut down.

Reuther Maps Drive On 'Poverty'

By Victor Riesel

A "new" Walter Reuther flew into town the other day to deliver a speech during which he drew laughter 22 times in 70 minutes. He mocked Madison Avenue's image - making wizardry but appeared to be remaking his own image. His talk to the cheering Textile Workers Union convention was so filled with gags, he'll soon have Bob Hope's comedy writers following him around. He thanked Barry Goldwater for handling his "publicity" — by the senator's calling him "the most dangerous man in America."

Victor Riesel

But the old, ever-inventive Reuther militancy showed right through the new image. He revealed he was about to launch a new national movement to organize the poor and the unemployed. His United Auto Workers Union (UAW) is putting up the cash to support it during its early organizing efforts.

AT FIRST the UAW treasury will provide $100,000 for "seed money." Then the union will supply a million dollars to keep it going.

With characteristic Reuther thoroughness the drive had been methodically blue - printed. He disclosed that he had invited some 500 of the nation's liberal leaders to a one-day conference to be held sometime before the end of June in Detroit or Washington.

"Such a conference," he told this newsman after the speech, "would move on a three point action program. It would set up a representative steering committee to follow through on all matters related to the launching of a 'National Citizens Crusade Against Poverty.' It would set up a representative task force committee, charged with the responsibility of discussing and developing recommendations of structure, program and policies needed to mobilize citizens groups. It would set a date for a citizens conference which we have not yet fixed."

THERE WILL BE a permanent headquarters and a staff, Reuther added. Asked if this would operate in Washington, he simply replied that the work would have to be done in poor are." Pushed on whether this would be a permanent organization, he replied that it would be a long-term operation, since, "poverty appears to be with us and for some time."

Observers, intrigued by the new drive, found the clues to the nature of the new organization—which appears to resemble the "jobless workers" alliances of the depression—in the letters of invitation Reuther dispatched recently.

The poor are not only invisible, says the letter, but they are "inarticulate and they are without a voice." They must be organized, so they can make their voices heard, Reuther goes on in his long communication to the 500 special invitees.

THE GOVERNMENT can't do the job alone, asserts Reuther in his call for the launching of the National Citizens Crusade against Poverty (NCCAP).

"What is needed is the full mobilization and cooperation and commitment of citizens groups: church, labor, industry, civil rights, civic organization, farmer, veteran, student and others if our nation's effort to fight poverty is to be successful," Reuther continues.

This organization could work on a community, state and federal basis. It could unite with the National Coalition of Conscience, made up of some 90 liberal, professional, religious and social organizations.

None of these organizations, Reuther charges, "has the resources, the manpower or the organizational contacts to take on this task of organizing the unemployed, the underemployed and the under-privileged single handedly.

"The organizations making up the National Coalition of Conscience," Reuther adds, "supported by participation from industry, agriculture, education, veterans and other groups would make up the NCCAP and together they do have the resources to do the job."

REUTHER DID NOT say whether the new national group would become politically active. But this seems inevitable. It is also considered Reuther's answer to what he consistently calls "labor's flabbiness."

During his formal talk to the convention he criticized some labor leaders for acting as though they were "running banks." Labor's millions must go back into the labor movement for wide organizational drives of all kinds, he said—drives to unionize teachers, white collar workers, professionals and, of course, the unemployed.

The image may be new, but the "old" Reuther is on the march again.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Miriam Baham, Kathryn Brookes, Mary Jenkins, Andrew Ray and Franklin Jackson, graduates of Wellsville and Irondale High Schools, were honored at a reception at the Lee's African Methodist Episcopal Church in Wellsville.

Raymond Martin Welkart of McKinnon Ave. was graduated from the Episcopal Theological School of Harvard, Mass.

Letter To Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We are writing to thank all the people who worked so fervently to save the life of our son, Bruce, May 26 when he fell into Lake Samary.

We especially thank those who dived into the water to get him out and those who summoned help, along with the other rescuers, the firemen, ambulance attendants, and hospital personnel, and those who prayed for him and stayed with him.

We recognize the hand of God in this and honor and praise him for giving us back our son. God used each of those involved to accomplish His miracle.

We know of no better way to show our appreciation than to pray that nothing will hinder all of those who helped from reaching the Heavenly Home promised to those who believe in His son.

Whither Menon?

By Darius S. Jhabvala

UNITED NATIONS

The unanimous election of Lal Bahadhur Shastri as the second prime minister of India is by no means considered as writing a finis of the left wing-right wing infight within the Congress party for the future control of the government.

During the days immediately following the death of Jawaharl Nehru, both sides had acceded to laying down their daggers. Experts point out that the moratorium was for technical reasons and will not last long.

These sources argue that it would not have been good politics in the eyes of rank-and-file Congress party members to stage a prolonged struggle in the week of the death of the revered national hero.

Thus Krishna Menon, the power within the left wing Group, and Morarji Desai, his counterpart in the right wing, temporarily may be out of the present political scene.

They are expected to emerge as soon as Shastri makes a move that is unpopular with either side, such as on questions of relations with Pakistan and Red China.

OF THE TWO, Menon is expected to be the most formidable of the opposition leaders since he derives his backing from sources other than left-wing Congressmen.

Independents and representatives of other parties in Parliament, such as the Communist party and the Praja Socialist party, which are far too fragmented to offer individual opposition to Shastri, are expected to throw in their lot with him.

One recent example of Menon's intentions was his attempt to keep Acting Prime Minister Gulzarilal Nanda in office long enough to gain time to curb the strength of Mr. Desai, who was a candidate for the prime ministership. Though Mr. Menon himself was not a candidate for the office, he was influential in preventing a right-wing victory.

Indians have therefore not ruled out the possibility that he still may make a stab at grabbing the reins of the country if he was assured of more backing in Parliament.

THEY POINT OUT that despite the fact that he was drummed out as minister of defense in December, 1962, Menon has been an influence at the top levels of Parliament and in Parliament. His close associations with Nehru, dating to the 1920s when the two were friendly in London, and among leading Cabinet members like Jagjivan Ran and Mr. Nanda, are prime attractions to draw support.

At the party convention last January, it was Menon who was given the honor to propose a complete socialization of major industries instead of the government-private business partnership that had already been laid down by the Nehru Regime.

Also, it is his brand of foreign policy, that is, open nonalignment with the Communist nations and peaceful coexistence with the West, that has of late gained more favor among the intelligensia.

THE CHECKS on Menon had been exercised hitherto by Nehru himself. For as long as Nehru was present, Menon, who helped mold foreign policy, withheld criticism. But with Shastri, whose views do not coincide with that of Menon, he would feel free to level all sorts of bitter attacks.

For example, on the question of India's relations with Pakistan and Red China, the two do not see eye to eye. Menon has advocated that India deal firmly with Pakistan over Kashmir while it should promote coexistence with Red China.

Mr. Shastri does not share such views.

Reliable observers who have recently returned from India state that Menon is gaining support from even those educated Indians who do not subscribe to his views.

The argument for such support within the ranks is that the real threat to Indian democracy comes from the right-wing of the party and therefore Menon, as the main opposition to this group, should be supported in his efforts "to keep them in check."

Petain's Ghost

By Don Cook

PARIS

As France begins its 20th anniversary observances of invasion, liberation and victory in World War II, the thoughts of quite a few Frenchmen turn with a haunting uncertainty of conscience to a prison grave on the lonely, windswept Ile 'Yeu, 30 miles out in the Atlantic, off the coast of Brittany.

There lies the body of Marshall Henri-Philippe Petain—hero of Verdun in World War I, embracer of France's defeat in World War II, bearer of the stain of Vichy, condemned to death as a traitor in 1945 without ever uttering a word in his own defense.

His sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by Gen. de Gaulle in 1945, and Petain died in his island cell of pneumonia in 1951 at the age of 95.

Should Marshal Petain be "rehabilitated"? Can he ever be rehabilitated? Certainly he bears less of the shame of Vichy in the public mind than the arch-villain and odious sidekick, Pierre Laval. All that would be required to restore Petain to a place in history, which he earned and then destroyed, would be the removal of his remains from the Atlantic prison island and their reinternment at Verdun.

THE CAREERS of Marshal Petain and Gen. de Gaulle are oddly and intimately entwined. The question of rehabilitation—and whether De Gaulle himself might not make the gesture—has been reopened by the publication by a Gaullist deputy in the National Assembly, Jean Deouot-l'Hermine, of details of a conversation on the subject which he had with De Gaulle five years ago.

It is said to have been Petain's dying wish that he be interred at the national cemetery of Douaumont, one of the battlefields of Verdun, where those who fell in battle are buried. Drouot-l'Hermine says that Gen. de Gaulle told him:

"The moment was not quite right to make such a decision, in the risk of misunderstanding in numerous interpretations. But he assured me that he had considered it, and whatever might happen to himself, he would take his dispositions so that this irritating question for many Frenchmen would at last be resolved."

About this reported interview of six years ago, there is nothing but silence from the Elysee Palace. Indications are that while Gen. de Gaulle deels sympathy and sadness for the place in history of his old commander, Marshal Petain, he is not prepared to take the lead now in a "rehabilitation" gesture, which almost certainly would stir up far more controversy than it would resolve.

THE CLOSENESS of these two soldiers of France in their divergent careers—one to the honor of France and the other to its disaster—are strangely indicative of the uncertainty of conscience which surrounds France's past, on this 20th anniversary of the beginnings of its liberation.

In the incredible blood-letting of Verdun in World War I De Gaulle, then a captain, was commanding a unit in the defense of Fort Douaumont, led his company in attack, was wounded and the next day was missing. He had been picked up by German stretcher-bearers and was on his way to a prison camp.

His commander-in-chief, Petain, issued a citation declaring that Capt. de Gaulle, "renowned for his high intellectual and moral worth," was missing after an attack "compatible with his sense of military honor," and was "in all respects an officer without equal."

IN HIS MEMOIRS, De Gaulle recounts:

"Thus in the annihilation of Vichy, Philippe Petain turned to Charles de Gaulle. This, then, was the end of that dreadful series of capitulations in which, under the pretext of 'saving the furniture,' servitude had been accepted. . .

"Monsieur le Marshal: You who had always done such great honor to your arms, you who were once my leader and my example—how could you come to this?"

In 1955, astronomers learned that Jupiter was emitting long-wave radio signals. It was a surprising discovery, because planets usually transmit only short waves generated by heat.

Heart Attack Claims Potter

William T. Schopp, 1306 Erie St., was pronounced dead on arrival at City Hospital Tuesday night at 8 of an apparent heart attack suffered a short time earlier at his home. He was 61.

Patrolman Samuel E. Hayes was dispatched to investigate at 7:38 after neighbors notified police by telephone they feared Mr. Schopp had been taken ill while seated in a lounge chair in the back yard at his home. The officer summoned an ambulance to remove Mr. Schopp to the hospital.

Born in New Castle to the late Augusta Schopp and Catherine Martin Schopp, he resided here most of his life. He was employed as a caster at the Hall China Co. and was a member of the IBOP.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Marjorie G. Schopp at home; two daughters, Mrs. William (Betty) Pizzica of Lindsay, Calif., and Mrs. Robert (Ann) Hrabak of Cathedral City, Calif., a step-daughter, Mrs. Clayton Dugan, and a step-son, James Angus, both of East Liverpool, a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Rhemus of Camden, N. J., and 12 grandchildren

Death Claims Retired Farm Operator At 91

HANOVERTON — Earl J. Williard, 91, of R. D. 1 near Millport, a retired farmer, died at his home Tuesday afternoon at 2 after a brief illness.

A resident of the area all his life, he was born at the home May 10, 1873.

He was a member of the Bethesda Presbyterian Church and the Pleasant Valley Grange of Millport.

His wife, Mrs. Hanna Lindesmith, Williard, died in 1960.

Survivors include a son, Lloyd C. Williard at home; two daughters, Mrs. H. F. Schumacher of Canton and Mrs. Myron Kelley of Salem, and six grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 at the Maple Funeral Home at Kensington by the Rev. Boyd S. Burd. Burial will be in Trinity Cemetery near Lisbon.

Friends may call tonight at the funeral home.

Archie Allison

Archie A. Allison of Hookstown, retired grocer and garage operator, died Tuesday night at 11:45 in his home after a lengthy illness. He was 66.

Born in Georgetown Dec. 25, 1897, to the late Henry Allison and Adda McClurg Allison, he had retired in 1953. He was a member of the Hookstown Presbyterian Church.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Daisy Reed Allison at home; four brothers, Charles Allison of Shippingport, Harry Allison and Frank Allison, both of Georgetown, and John Allison of Hookstown, and three sisters, Mrs. Belle Morrow of Shippingport, Mrs. Helen McCombs of Weirton and Mrs. Mary Wright of Chester.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Arner Funeral Chapel in Chester by the Rev. Alexander Wilson of the Hookstown Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Mill Creek Cemetery.

Friends may call at the chapel tonight and Thursday.

Mrs. Nelle Handte

EAST PALESTINE — Mrs. Nelle C. Handte, 216 E. Clark St., died at 5:40 a. m. today at the Salem City Hospital, where she had been a patient the past month. She was 82.

A life resident of East Palestine, she was born Oct. 4, 1881 to William H. Olloman and Jane Chambers Olloman. She was employed at one time in the cafeteria at the Adamson Co. here. She was a charter member of the East Palestine Garden Club and a member of the First Church of Christ. She was married in 1904 to Edwin Firth, who died in 1921, and in 1926 to Everett E. Handte, who died in 1944.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. P. M. Hawkins of New Waterford and two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p. m. at the Van Dyke Funeral Home by Dan Davis, minister. Burial will be in Glenview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday from 7 to 9 p. m.

Trial

that Merkich broke into their home in 1961 and she and Merkich had illicit relations.

Mrs. Young threw the letter into a toilet in the bathroom, and it was retrieved and read by Young, according to the statement. Young then asked his wife to give him a statement in writing concerning her relations with Merkich, so he could confront Merkich with it and "make him leave the county or take it to a justice of the peace to bring legal action."

Young said in the statement that when his wife refused to give him the letter he desired, that he "would have to kill Merkich."

Young said he put a .32-caliber rifle in his car, drove to the Merkich home, and fired the shots while the victim stood in the doorway. He said he did not remember any conversation.

Young said the next thing he could remember was someone screaming. Later, he went to a nearby house trailer occupied by George Merkich Jr., and told him of the shooitng. He also went to the James Hukill home and, when threatening suicide, the family calmed him down.

Judge James G. McClure read aloud the letter written by Mrs. Young to Merkich. It was the one fished from the toilet by Young and was faded and obviously hard to decipher.

The letter said Mrs. Young accused Merkich of writing her "mean letters, calling dirty names." She wrote, "You're the cause of the trouble in my house. I loved and trusted you and never told anyone about you. I would die before I would."

Near the end of the letter, she wrote that Merkich had been "spreading talk of her affairs," and "May God have mercy on me because you know what will happen if Bob finds out."

Other state's witnesses were Deputy Irwin L. Higgs, who took Young into custody Aug. 3, Mrs. Merkich and a daughter, Sandra Robinson, George Merkich Jr., and his wife, and James Huklil.

Hukill testified that he, his wife and daughter witnessed a "will" dictated by Young at the Hukill home after the shooting. He said Young provided a phone number of a brother in Butler, Pa., and they talked together.

Dropouts Dropped

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Louisville school system and civic organizations made a special effort last summer to get dropouts to return to school. They persuaded 261 who had left junior and senior high to return. Before the school year was over, three-fifths of them had quit again.

High Court Snubs Rehearing Of Suit Involving Bond Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There will be no Ohio Supreme Court rehearing of the suit challenging legality of Ohio's $250 million bond issue for education, conservation and public facilities. The high court ruled against the rehearing today.

The challenge originally was brought by Paul J. Lynch, Columbus school guidance counselor and former Demcratic state legislator. The court dismissed it four weeks ago, saying Lunch was not qualified to bring such action because he is not a bondholder.

Former Asst. Atty. General Theodore Saker, who filed the original suit for Lynch, also filed for the rehearing.

A penny was added to the state's cigarette tax in 1955 to finance a $150 million capital improvements bond issue, and the $250 million issue approved by voters last Nov. 5 would continue this.

Lynch had asserted he was concerned about possible impairment of the contract for repayment of 1955 bondholders and also said the state finance director was getting legislative power unlawfully.

Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe said the challenge suit was holding up plans on $61 million worth of improvements at state universities, for parks and recreation, water impoundment and for public schools. The attorney general also asked if there might not be political motivation in Lynch's effort to prevent Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes and sinking fund commissioners from issuing bonds.

An estimated excess of 20 million homes in the U. S. are reached by a top television program as compared with about 1.5 million via radio.

2nd Man Guilty In Salem Holdup

LISBON — A verdict of guilty was returned by a jury after an hour's deliberation Tuesday afternoon in the trial of Sam Miner, 33, of Youngstown, who was indicted by the April Grand Jury for the armed robbery of the Lippiatt linoleum store west of Salem on Route 62 Feb. 27 in which $90 was taken from Clarence Lippiatt by two men.

Miner in a signed statement admitted his part in the robbery but placed all the blame on John Pounds, 32, of Alliance, who was also convicted two weeks ago. Both men were wounded by Alliance police before their capture.

The trial began Monday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp, who held up sentencing pending a motion for a new trial.

Miner is confined to the County Jail but Pounds is out on bond, waiting hearing of a motion for a new trial.

Mother Kills 4 Children, Spares Fifth

W. Va., was halted in an attempt to jump in the Ohio River some time ago.

The couple had been arguing yesterday, and Midland police received a call from Billy Zlatovich, 16, an older son of the husband, who said his father was on his way to Midland with a gun, looking for the mother.

Located In Tavern

Midland police scouted for him, and located the mother in Rivetti's Bar with a woman companion. She was taken to the police station, and officers spotted Mitch Zlatovich watching across the street from the tavern.

Officers attempted to pacify both of them. One policeman said she declared, " 'Before I go home and let him take the kids from me, I'll kill him and the kids'." The pair left later.

Police said five shots were fired, but only four of the bullets were actually located by late morning.

The suspect was held in jail, then underwent interrogation later by Beaver County detectives and police in Police Chief Ed Stefl's office in the Borough Building.

Husband Building Home

The Zlatovich home is located along the Ohioville - Smiths Ferry Rd. The husband had been completing the structure, finishing the upper part of the house over the basement in which the family has been residing.

The bodies were removed to the Schwerha Funeral Home.

20 Guests At Hotel Had Good Intentions

MIAMI (AP) — Twenty well-meaning firefighters caused more damage than the hotel fire they attempted to battle, the Miami Fire Department said.

Hotel guests grabbed a fire hose, but ran out of hose 40 feet from the fire, so they decided to give the area a good soaking, "for good measure."

Governors

ident Dwight D. Eisenhower put on a go-and-stop operation in his behalf. Eisenhower urged Scranton to make himself more available, then advised the governor not to join any cabal against Goldwater.

This left Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as Goldwater's only avowed opponent. And it was evident that none of the other governors, nor Nixon, wanted to support him.

Nixon, who flew out of town after his strenous efforts to launch a stop-Goldwater movement failed, warned party moderates that there is less than a 50-50 chance of preventing Goldwater's nomination.

He told a news conference in Baltimore that if Romney fails to actively seek the nomination it will go to Goldwater on the first ballot at the convention in San Francisco next month.

Nixon said both Rockefeller and Scranton are virtually out of the race and his own prospects are remote.

Nixon called his efforts to get a governor into the race an attempt to create a "third force" between Goldwater and Rockefeller. Asked if he wasn't trying to stop Goldwater after having assured the senator prior to the June 2 California primary that he wouldn't join in such a move, Nixon replied:

'Many Goldwater supporters would so construe it. I don't."

Nixon said he was trying to advance a candidate who would represent the principles of the party as they are thought of in the industrial states of Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and California.

Nixon said he plans to meet next week with Eisenhower. He said Eisenhower, who talked with Romney at the conference, has spoken highly of the Michigan governor.

Most Campers Want The Simple Facilities

A University of Illinois study of 158 families revealed what they looked for in camping sites. Good clean water for drinking headed the list.

Hot showers ranked low on the list. So did electricity and flush toilets.

Harvey Schweitzer, extension rural sociologist, said nearly all families agreed that a graveled drive and pad for tent or trailer, wood supply were satisfactory.

Rights

cloture. Not to do so, he said, would be "only a delaying tactic."

Nearly 500 amendments have been proposed in addition to a package of amendments which Democratic and Republican leaders have drafted as a substitute for the House - passed measure.

Supporters of the civil rights measure won their biggest victories Tuesday in votes on the equal employment oportunity section, regarded as perhaps the most controversial part of the legislation.

By a vote of 64 to 33, the Senate defeated an amendment by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., to strike out this section prohibiting discrimination in employment on account of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. It would apply to employers, labor unions and employment agencies.

Research Aim: Retain Natural Color Of Peas

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP) — The University of California at Davis has been the scene of experiments related to retaining the natural color of canned vegetables. The program is conducted by the National Canners Association.

Research aimed toward retaining the color of peas by natural processes is directed by Dr. C. O. Chichester. Color loss has been traced and experimentors have determined that re-greening will occur under certain conditions.

Chichester controlled the acid-alkaline level during heating, canned the vegetable and stored it for a few weeks at 85 or 90 degrees Farenheit.

Motorist Struck By Own Car As It Slips From Jack

An East Liverpool man was knocked down by his own car Tuesday afternoon as it slipped off a jack and then drifted downgrade and struck another auto, police reported.

The 1954 sedan of Earl Jackson, 1738 Dresden Ave., slipped off the jack about 3:05 p. m. as the owner worked on the auto on McKee St., officers said.

Jackson attempted to climb behind the wheel to stop the auto, but he was knocked down, officers reported.

The car then continued downgrade and hit a parked 1962 four-door sedan owned by William G. Edgell, 1336 Dresden Ave., police said.

Jackson told police he did not remember what happened. Details of the mishap were supplied by his wife, a witness. Edgell told officers he did not witness the incident as he was inside his home.

Chester Kiwanis Hears Park Head

A description of West Virginia's state parks and facilities was given by N. T. Holbrook, superintendent of Tomlinson Run State Park, at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall auditorium.

Nineteen attended the meeting. Holbrook said there are 21 parks in the state, but only one — Tomlinson Run — has facilities for group camping.

No hunting is permitted in any of the parks, he said. "The philosophy of the park department is to keep nature as it is so visitors, campers and others may enjoy the surroundings with a minimum of man's engineering skills to aid their enjoyment."

Visitors to state parks increased from 10,000 in 1937 to 2,360,000 in 1963, he said.

Girl Receives Degree In Wilberforce Class

Miss Willa May Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson of Harker Ave., received a bachelor of science degree in education at commencement exercises Sunday at Central State College at Wilberforce.

She has accepted a teaching position at Gary, Ind., but will work during the summer at Hartford, Conn.

Attending from here in addition to her mother were her brothers, Alfred Johnson Jr. and Ronald Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith and daughters, Miss Olive Smith and Miss Barbara Jean Smith, all of Harker Ave., and Miss Nancy Parsons of Elizabeth St.

Miss Barbara Jean Smith is a member of the Junior Class and sang with the choir for the commencement exercises.

Integrated Quarters Due For Girls State

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Buckeye Girls State, sponsored by the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary will have integrated sleeping quarters from now on, says Mrs. O. Linn Perry of Akron, director of the girls' annual statewide meeting.

Her announcement Tuesday affects the annual meeting in Columbus June 20 to 28 at Capital University. About 1,259 girls will attend. Buckeye Girls State officials were criticized last summer by the Columbus branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for having segregated sleeping quarters.

$12,000 Pike Bonds Found On Ohio Man

CLEVELAND (AP) — The FBI said $12,000 worth of Ohio Turnpike bonds was found in the possession of a 34-year-old man arrested in connection with a $34,000 robbery in a "Gold Coast" home. FBI agents arrested William Gene Huff Thursday at the Oxford Hotel,* where he was visiting a friend. He was charged with interstate transportation of stolen bonds.

The robbery was at the home of Walter J. Mueller, on Edgewater Avenue on the west side. Mrs. Mueller told police she was handcuffed to a piano in the basement by a man who gained entrance posing as a telephone company worker.

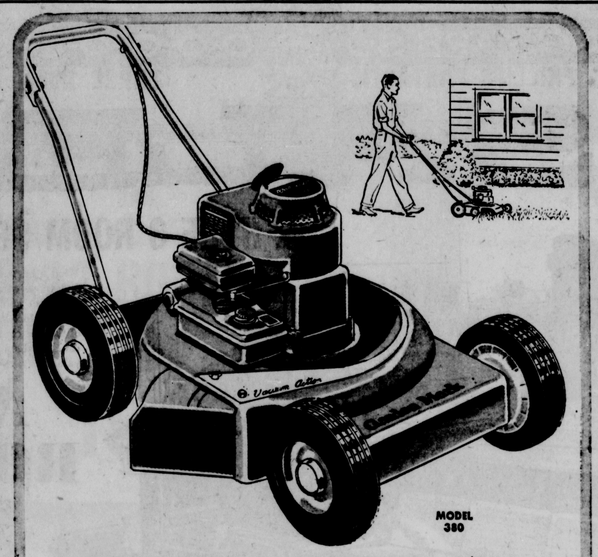

Gets U.N. Appeal

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council voted a new appeal to South Africa Tuesday to stop handing out death sentences to those who run afoul of its racial policies. The vote was 7-0, with the United States, Britain, France and Brazil abstaining.

Florida Man Is Injured In 'Hit-Skip'

A Florida motorist suffered an arm injury in a hit-skip accident Tuesday at 4:15 p. m. on Route 45 just south of Salem, according to the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Officers said a car driven by Robert A. Rippin, 59, of Indiantown, Fla., was sideswiped by a truck.

Rippin was headed south on Route 45 when the truck came left of center and hit his car, officers said. A search was under way today for the vehicle.

Rippin was driving with his arm out the window and suffered a fractured left elbow and lacerations of the left arm. He was taken to Salem City Hospital.

A car driven by Ronald Lee Davidson, 17, of Negley R. D. 1 rammed an embankment on Route 170 two and seven-tenths south of East Palestine Tuesday at 7:45 p. m.

Cars driven by Luther O. Karr, 65, of Canton and Doris Eleanor Watson, 39, of Hanoverton collided Tuesday at 1:01 p. m. on Route 172 seven and a half miles east of the Stark County Line.

Mary Dennis, 39, of Canton, a passenger in the Karr vehicle, suffered a whiplash of the neck. Cindy Watson, 9, of Hanoverton and Deborah Kelly, 12, of Belmont, passengers in the Watson vehicle, suffered bumps of the head. They were treated by physicians.

Mrs. Watson was cited for improper passing.

Band Will Lead Parade In Fete At Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — The Southern Local High School band will lead the homecoming parade Saturday night at 7.

The celebration will be held Friday and Saturday nights at 6 on the Everett Hays lot adjoining the fire hall, sponsored by the Civic Improvement League and the Franklin Township volunteer fire department.

Games and rides will be featured. Women of the community will operate a food stand.

A round and square dance contest and a twist contest will be held at 8 p. m. Friday on the tennis court. The Twilighters will furnish the music.

Harry Rogers will display two steam engines. One will operate a shingle machine and the shingles will be given away as souvenirs.

Proceeds will be for community improvements. Dean Dowdell is general chairman.

Chester Autoist Cited On 3 Counts

George Crawford, 29, of Fairview Rd., Chester was cited on three traffic charges late Tuesday night by Police Chief Clarence Lennens after pursuit from 1st St. and Carolina Ave. to Fairview Rd.

Chief Lennens said Crawford's car narrowly missed striking his private car and the defendant was halted at 1st St.

The officer said Crawford backed off and drove to Fairview Rd. before being halted. He is charged with improper registration, lack of an operator's license and resisting arrest.

Crawford was treated at City Hospital this morning at 12:30 for lacerations of the left eye inflicted by the chief's nightstick in a struggle resisting arrest. A hearing is slated Monday night at 7:30 before Mayor Harry Abrams.

2 City Drivers Fined In State Patrol Cases

Two East Liverpool motorists were fined $5 and costs each Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald at Lisbon on charges filed by the State Highway Patrol.

The defendants were William L. Payne, 25, of 929 Claiborne St., cited on a charge of failing to stop within the assured clear distance, and Roy R. Black, 53, of 1651 Cleveland Ave., charged with passing at an intersection.

Ronald Mowery, 33, of 316 E. Washington St., Lisbon, also was fined $5 on a speeding charge. Bonds of $15 were forfeited by Jackie P. Simms, 32, of Ravenna and Donald Yancey, 28, of Warren, both charged with speeding.

Water Meters Installed

EAST PALESTINE — Mayor Robert Harding said today 125 of the residents ordered to install water meters earlier this year have complied. Some 450 were directed to have the meters installed by July 1. The shutoff deadline is Oct. 1. The meters cost $37.

WSCS At First Methodist Honors Retiring President

Mrs. Albert McLain, retiring president, was honored at the closing meeting of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church Monday afternoon in Fellowship Hall when a smorgasbord luncheon was featured. About 66 attended.

Mrs. Francis H. Lang was moderator for the skit, "This Is Your Life." Mrs. John L. Clark, honorary vice president, escorted Mrs. McLain to the throne where she was crowned "Mrs. WSCS."

She was presented with a scrapbook of the activities of the organization under her leadership, compiled by Mrs. Robert Wotring.

The program theme was "And We Grew In Wisdom, and In Stature, and In Favor of God and Man." Mrs. Clark spoke of the spiritual growth under the leadership of Miss Margaret Baum, spiritual life chairman.

Mrs. Minnie Gillespie, Mrs. Lang and Mrs. Harry Hicks discussed the fields of wisdom and understanding and Miss Daisy Gilmore, social growth.

The society's growth in brotherhood was exemplified by Mrs. Wilbur Moore, Mrs. George Hercules and Mrs. John Bebout.

Speaking on promotion, Mrs. Robert Risinger and Mrs. Henry T. Williams, told of participation in district conferences. Diane Goodman expressed appreciation of the children of the church.

Mrs. Aaron Eaton, a former president, gave the address on the meaning and heritage of "The Women's Society of Christian Service."

The smorgasbord table, covered with a green and white striped cloth, was highlighted with trailing ivy. The five circles were seated at separate tables decorated with spring flowers.

The committee was comprised of Mrs. Richard Martin and Mrs. T. F. Scheffer, assisted by members of all the circles, and Mrs. Mea Bau Harte, guest from Ann Arbor.

MISS CAROLEE TURNER
She'll Head New Officers.

Miss Carolee Turner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Turner, 465 Case St., will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 61 of the International Order of Job's Daughters, along with the slate of other officers, at ceremonies at 7:30 o'clock Friday night at the Masonic Temple.

Miss Turner is a member of the Junior Class of East Liverpool High School and has been a member of the National Honor Society, Latin Club and Student Council. She will work on the Keramos staff next term. She belongs to the First Methodist Church.

The theme for the affair will be "Open Your Heart to Friendship," with the colors of pink and purple predominating.

The Rev. John L. Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will give the address. Mrs. Robert Arnold will be soloist.

Installing officers include Miss Eaton, honored queen; Miss Diane Boso of Lisbon Bethel 48, guide; Miss Karen Keddie, marshal; Miss Gloria Del Tritten of Lisbon, chaplain; Miss Brenda Powers, recorder; Miss Holly Lampman, junior custodian; Miss Mary Alice Stark, senior custodian, and Miss Carolyn Wilson, musician.

An open reception will follow in the grillroom.

Mrs. Genevieve Hoffman is guardian, and John Hall, associate guardian. Miss Turner will participate in activities June 20 at Cleveland when Hall will be installed as associate grand guardian of Ohio.

4-H News

A 4-H club horse and pony project training meeting will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Columbiana County Fairgrounds, according to Robert B. Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H.

Henry Long of Lisbon R. D. 5, Carroll Miles of Salem R. D. 1 and Walter Holmes of Winona will provide 4-H members with information about working with young horses and ponies. There will be a demonstration in breaking a colt to follow commands and discussion of showing animals.

This is a third in a series of training meeting for 4-H members to help them to have a better knowledge of horses and ponies. Parents and other interested persons may attend.

The annual picnic was planned in August by the Helping Hands 4-H Club when it met Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glass of the Lisbon Rd., Wellsville.

Joyce James, Cathy Maylone, Pam Thrasher, Lois McCollam and Karen Ketchum will comprise the committee for the outing. Club judging was held and the next will be July 13. The district judging will be the last week of July.

The club received a silver award for no membership dropouts and perfect attendance in 1963. It was presented to Lois McCollam, president, by Joyce James, past president. Charles Glass gave a demonstration and report on the safe use of lawn mowers. Judy Huston, Jack James and Clyde Maylone are planning to attend the 4-H camp at Camp Aldersgate, Leesville, in July.

A wiener roast was held with 20 members and Debbie Skeens and Linda Mick, associate members, and David Skeens, a visitor, present. Next meeting will be July 13 at the Glass home.

The Columbiana - Mahoning County 4-H Dairy tour will be held Thursday at 10 a. m. at the Paul Witmer farm, located northeast of Washingtonville on the Breen Beaver Rd.

The Lauren Moff & Son Farm and the Orville Slagle farm, both in southern Mahoning County, will be visited in the afternoon by the 4-H Dairy Club members from the two counties.

Beaver Local Boosters Set 2 Fund Events

Plans for two new-fund-raising events were outlined at a meeting of the Beaver Local Boosters Club Tuesday night at the Public School. Twenty - five attended.

The seventh annual fall festival will be Sept. 22-26 at the high school. William Roberts and Leslie Jones were named co-chairmen. Outlying schools in the district will be invited to provide some entertainment.

The queen contest will be held if a chairman can be obtained.

An auction sale will be held Aug. 8 at the Public School. Paul Dailey and Jones will be co-chairmen. Donations of anything will be accepted. Pickup schedules will be announced later.

Bids are being sought on a bus owned by the club. They may be submitted to George Gaydos.

A discussion was held on other fund projects. Mrs. James McLaughlin reported on the coin show held Sunday. James McLaughlin, president, reported on a horse-pull to be held July 4 at the Public School. Members are selling tickets.

Mrs. George Gaydos reported on a horse show slated July 26. A pony will be a prize.

Refreshments were served. Next meeting is June 23 at 7:30 p. m.

'Split' Democrat Groups To Meet

Dick Wright of Chester, who has served as chairman for two years, has slated a meeting of the Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Courthouse in New Cumberland.

The session, which will be open to the public, is to wrap up reorganization of the executive committee, he said.

Wright announced Gov. W. W. Barron and State Police Col. William Burchett have been invited.

Meanwhile, Atty. Edward A. Zagula of Weirton has set a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee for Monday night at the Weirton Community Center to discuss a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner June 27 in Charleston.

Atty. Zagula was elected chairman by 13 members of the executive committee, with four exercising proxies, June 3 at the Courthouse.

Salvation Army Class Still Open

Children may still enroll for the daily Vacation Bible School of the Salvation Army, which opened Monday with sessions scheduled morning and evenings through June 17.

Mrs. William Hathorn, major and superintendent, said 93 are registered.

Mrs. Grace Treleven and Mrs. Beverly Hildebrand are record sergeants.

Constance Mills Becomes Charles W. White's Bride

Miss Constance Lynn Mills carried a white Bible, topped with an arrangement of orchids, stephanotis and satin streamers, when she became the bride of Charles William White the evening of June 2 at 7:30 o'clock in the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mills of Lisbon St., Glenmoor, and her husband is the son of Mrs. Helen Metsch of Montana Ave., Chester, and the late Charles White.

The Rev. James F. Donald, pastor, officiated for the single-ring ceremony before an altar banked with snapdragons, carnations, baby breath, ferns and palms.

Richard Mattern sang "The Hawaiian Wedding Song" also the native version, and "O Promise Me" and "Because." Mrs. Helen Densmore, church organist, played a half hour of wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with a scalloped, Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt, cascading in tiers, fell into a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was held in place by a dropped floral headdress of pearls. She wore the gift of the bridegroom, a single strand of pearls. In observing the traditions, she wore the garter her aunt, Mrs. Virginia Smith, wore at her wedding.

They wore dresses of coral nylon chiffon, the maid of honor's was floor length and the bridesmaids, ballerina length. Their matching headbands held theater veils and they carried Colonial bouquets of white carnations and red rosebuds. Their single strand pearls were gifts of the bride.

Heidi Ann Smith, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and appeared in a pink dacron dress accented with coral rosebuds on the collar. She carried a basket of yellow and coral daisies and rosebuds, later fashioned into a corsage. She received a birthstone ring from the bride.

James Kimble was best man and ushers were Jerry Ash and Robert Dunn. They received cuff links from the bridegroom.

MRS. C. W. WHITE
Her Nuptials Held On June 2.

The mother of the bride chose a pink lace dress and the bridegroom's mother, a blue linen sheath. White accessories and carnation corsages complemented their attire.

A reception for 100 was held at the Glenmoor fire hall, which was decorated with wedding bells and crepe paper streamers. The buffet table was centered with a four - tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple and encircled with coral and white carnations.

Aides were Miss Marilyn Mills, Mrs. Virginia Smith and Mrs. Helen Fiber. Miss Marilyn Sue Mills, aunt of the bride, presided at the guest register, and Miss Alice Mae White, sister of the bridegroom, at the gift register. She was assisted by Miss Helen Morris.

The George Hamilton Orchestra provided background music. Guests were from Washington, Aliquippa, Hanoverton and West Virginia.

For her honeymoon to Washington and Virginia Beach, the bride wore a Navy blue silk shantung suit with white accessories and her bridal orchids.

The bride attended East Liverpool High School and her husband was graduated from Chester High School. He is employed at the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland.

Band Greets Choir On Return From Fair

A large crowd greeted the party of 100 members of the East Liverpool High School Concert Choir and their chaperones when they arrived at 7:30 Tuesday night from a week's visit to New York and the World's Fair.

The high school band serenaded them at the Memorial Auditorium parking lot when the buses arrived. The students composed original words in the past tense to sing "We Gave Our Regards to Broadway" after unloading.

U.S. Election Held Bad For Latin States

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Cubans were told Tuesday night it doesn't matter whether the Democrats or the Republicans win the U.S. election because both will be bad for Latin America.

Communist leader Blas Roca said in a radio-television appearance: "There are some candidates who wouldn't be as bad as that madman Goldwater but both parties are enemies of Latin America."

terday's bids, as a Highway Department spokesman had indicated.

He said the East Liverpool officials gained the impression that the Highway Department's Board of Awards frequently awards contracts on bids over the estimate, so long as they do not exceed the state's figure by 5 per cent or more.

COOPER SAID he understands the Board of Awards will meet tomorrow to act on the bids received Tuesday.

The second offer received on the St. Clair project was filed by the Smith Construction Co. of Vienna. Its bid was $859,749, or $94,149 over the state's estimate. The overall estimate for the job — including right-of-way and other items — is $848,780. The city's share is based on the overall cost.

The East Liverpool officials pointed out that the Youngstown firm's bid is approximately 4 per cent over the state's estimate.

"The fact the bid is over the estimate does not throw the bid out automatically," Cooper said. "The Board of Awards meets Thursday, I believe, and it has the right to accept the offers or order re-advertising."

THEN HE cited these factors in favor of accepting the bid: 1. The low bid was within 5 per cent of the state estimate, "seemingly a cut-off point;" 2. More than one concern filed an offer, "so there was competition in the bidding;" 3. The next offer is about $62,000 over the low bid, but the offer was filed "by a reputable contractor," and 4. Calling for new offers "might result in a higher bid."

Cooper cited these points in favor of rejecting the offers: 1. Both bids were over the estimate, and 2. Re-advertising might result in a lower bid.

The officials said the state's estimate will be reviewed before the Board of Awards convenes to determine if the estimate was "too low on certain items."

"IF THE state accepts the bid, the Bureau of Public Roads also must approve, although we understand this is usually automatic," Cooper said. The Bureau of Public Roads is the federal agency which has guaranteed to pay about half the project cost.

Cooper pointed out the city so far has guaranteed $348,000 as its share of the work and the county has pledged to provide $75,000 — if it's needed. That makes the total in local funds $423,000, he said. The federal agency has promised to provide about $400,000, which places the total financing available at $823,000, he added.

"THIS APPARENTLY is enough to cover the construction costs," he said. But Cooper added that the overall project also will entail items for supervision of construction and "contingencies." The additional items generally account for an extra 10 per cent of the cost, he said.

The four municipal officals also conferred with Highway Department spokesmen on four local projects — improvement of the Lisbon St. Hill and Shadyside Ave., construction of an auto - pedestrian ramp on W. 9th St. and the eastward extension of the Freeway.

Hall said data on the four projects will be included in the report to Council tonight.

Goldwater

ination, Goldwater was said by an aide to be viewing the vice-presidential spot in terms of how best to strengthen the ticket next November — not with an eye to building his convention power.

An Associated Press survey now puts his delegate total at 540—with indications he could push it past the nominating number next week.

Efforts to blunt his drive appeared to have collapsed at the National Governors Conference in Cleveland.

"I will have open ears and an open mind to anybody the party suggests to run with me," Goldwater said in Los Angeles the night he won the California primary.

Nevertheless, a top aide said Goldwater "contemplates handling this in the orthodox way. He will have a very strong hand in the selection of a running mate."

The aide pointed out that three of the four men Goldwater has mentioned privately are from states that rank among the most potent in the Electoral College: New York with 43 votes, Pennsylvania with 29 and Ohio with 26. Kentucky has 9.

Scranton, 46, long rated a dark-horse contender for top spot on the ticket, served a term in the House before he became governor. The Pennsylvania leader was a World War II flier and still is a member of the Air Force Reserve unit Goldwater commands.

Cigarette Smugglers Called Skiing Hazard

GRAND ST. BERNARD, Switzerland (AP) — Ski fields of the new St. Bernard center which reaches into Italy, have run into an unexpected hazard: cigarette smugglers. The ski areas are being crisscrossed by jeeps and other vehicles laden with cigarettes being smuggled into Italy duty free. The vehicles' chains plow up the runs at certain points, and tourists have become increasingly irritated at the scale of this local "industry."

Until this season the smugglers shared the mountainside only with the Grand St. Bernard monks and their dogs, and carried on their "industry" openly, expecting to net about 150 francs ($17) each for their work daily.

IN OTHER highway matters, Atty. Francis H. Lang reported the Board of Directors of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association will meet Friday noon at the Salem Golf Club. Lang, chairman of the Chamber's highway committee, said the agenda will be devoted principally to discussion of construction plans for the lake - river road.

Guests at the luncheon session will include Earl Nelson, head of the Highway Department's Division 11 office in New Philadelphia, and Cliff Newhall, head of the Division 4 office in Ravenna. J. Paul Mossman of Youngstown is president of the four-county association.

Lang also reported on a meeting of the association May 25 at Warren at which new directors and officers were elected.

George A. Shaw, vice president of the Community Improvement Corp., reported the organization's Board of Trustees will meet Thursday at 4:45 p.m. in the Chamber office.

E. R. Chandler, executive manager, reported on a Governor's Conference on Industrial Development held Thursday at West Virginia University. T. H. Kashuba also attended.

THE BOARD was given a report on the spring membership meeting of the Chamber May 18 at the Country Club. It featured a program on local industry appreciation and a welcome to the Anchor Hocking Glass Corp.

The board discussed preliminary plans for a fall membership meeting. Arrangements were placed in the hands of the banquet and meetings committee headed by John Pinney.

H. James Allison Jr. furnished a written report on a Monday night meeting of the civic and community affairs committee, which discussed a plan to publicize city ordinances related to care and maintenance of property.

THE EDUCATION committee presented a report on the annual scholarship recognition dinner held May 27 at the Travelers Hotel, honoring the top 10 per cent of the graduating classes at East Liverpool, Beaver Local, Oak Glen and South Side High Schools.

A report was presented on recent activities of the East Liverpool Merchants Association, including the annual election in which Dayton Allen was returned as president.

Following its annual custom, the board voted to dispense with its regular meetings in July and August because of the vacation season. The Executive committee will act in the interim. The Board of Trustees may meet, if necessary, at the call of the Executive Committee.

Donald Honicky was named chairman of a committee to review the constitution and by-laws and recommend revisions.

The board's next meeting will be Sept. 8. It may be in the form of a dinner session with committee chairmen to get the fall program rolling.

Railroad Airs Reasons To Shut Depots

LISBON — Eugene J. Nolan, attorney-examiner for the Public Utilities Commission at Columbus, opened a hearing this morning at 10 at Village Hall on the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad's application to close its freight stations at Canfield and Leetonia.

About 20 were in the audience as presentation of the railroad's case was started by Atty. J. P. Canny. The first phase covered the application to close the Canfield facility. In the next segment of the hearing, evidence will be introduced to support the application to close the Leetonia station.

The railroad also has pending an application to close the station at Lisbon. Evidence was taken in a hearing at Columbus, but the PUCO then continued the case. If further hearings are required, they will be held at Lisbon.

Appearing as a witness for the railroad was Lloyd J. Carter of Youngstown, assistant superintendent of the railroad. He answered questions on the number of sidings on the line and the number of cars which they can handle.

Carter also cited figures to show losses which the railroad sustained. He said they were: 1960, $19,995,614; 1961, $26,485,759; 1962, $16,608,609; 1963, $17,115,271 and the first half of 1964, $3,621,000.

He said closing of the Canfield station would save the railroad $7,000 a year. He said 12 trucking companies now serve the community.

If the Canfield station is closed, the area will be served by the Niles depot, Carter said. He said the railroad would assume a telephone toll charge of 20 cents between Canfield and Niles.

Fred Coop, city solicitor, and several Canfield customers of the railroad appeared to oppose the move to drop the Canfield service.

Legion Head Fills 2 Posts At Wellsville

Elected as delegates and alternates to the district and department conventions the coming year were Maylone, Excell, Harry Crawford, Don Henthorn, Francis House and Daun Gitschier.

A committee was named to investigate the possibility of holding another carnival later this summer.

The Hancock County Bowling League banquet will be held at the post home tonight. A joint installation banquet of the County American Legion Council and the County Legion Auxiliary will be held Friday night. The Blue Shades will play for a dance Saturday night.

House reported on an executive committee meeting. Plans for the next three months were outlined.

The post will observe its anniversary June 20 with a special program. A free cocktail hour will be held from 9 to 10 p.m. for members and guests with a dance to follow.

Mel Gitschier said the post defeated the VFW in a softball game Sunday.

Several Ways To Prepare Fresh Pineapple

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

There are more ways than one of preparing a fresh pineapple—and all of them make serving the fruit easy and attractive.

Here's a rundown on ways to offer the pineapple in slices, in spears in the shell, and as pick-ups in the shell to accompany a before-dinner drink or as dessert.

Sliced Pineapple

Pineapple Spears

Cut a thick slice from the top and bottom of a ripe pineapple, saving the bottom slice. Remove the fruit in cylinder form by running a sharp, thin, long blade around the pineapple between the rind and meat, leaving the shell intact. One way of doing this is to cut from either end to the half-way point, keeping the knife blade pointed toward the rind.

Push the cylinder out of the bottom (large) end by pressing from the top (small) end. Cut the cylinder in half lengthwise, then into quarters. Cut core from each quarter. Cut quarters into spears. Place the bottom that was cut from the pineapple on a serving plate; place the pineapple shell over; fill with the pineapple spears. Garnish with a sprig of fresh mint.

Pineapple Pick-Ups

With a large sharp knife, cut the pineapple in half, right through the green plume or crown. Use a kitchen scissors to snip off any frayed tips of leaves. With a small sharp knife cut out the core in a narrow, deep strip without cutting through the rind.

With a curved serrated grapefruit knife, separate the fruit from the shell, by running the knife along the under side of the fruit (making sure the shell is thick enough to include the eyes). Leaving loosened fruit in the shell, slice vertically and horizontally, forming bite-size pieces.

For a first course, arrange marinated shrimp along the empty center channel of pineapple and spear pineapple pieces and shrimps with picks—for help-yourself service.

Substitute fresh whole strawberries for shrimp in center of pineapple, spear with picks and serve for a dessert course along with super-fine granulated sugar for dipping. If you have small oriental tea cups without handles, they make attractive individual sugar containers.

For table service, cut pineapple into quarters, loosen fruit as directed and serve alone in shell; or remove some of pineapple pieces, replace with whole strawberries, and serve with sugar in individual containers. Makes 4 servings.

American Reconnaissance

Unger Says He, Phouma Making Flight Decisions

By ANTOINE YARED

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Leonard Unger said today that continuance of American reconnaissance flights over Laos and fighter escorts for the flights is still a matter of decision between him and Premier Souvanna Phouma.

Unger told a news conference he expects to consult with Prince Souvanna Thursday on the flights when the premier returns from an overnight trip to the royal capital of Luang Prabang. Souvanna went there this morning, presumably to brief King Savang Vathana on developments.

The ambassador was commenting on unofficial reports that Souvanna had said he wanted the American reconnaissance flights—which he requested three weeks ago—stopped today.

Unger said he had no formal knowledge of Souvanna's reported desire to have the flights halted. But well - informed sources said no flights had been scheduled for today.

These sources said there had been no plans for daily flights on an indefinite basis. They indicated the purpose of the reconnaissance missions—to spot Communist military concentrations—might have been achieved but that further periodic flights might be needed for checks.

Souvanna indicated to newsmen Tuesday that he had not given authorization for armed fighters to escort the photo planes. The U.S. decision to provide armed fighter cover for the unarmed planes has stirred a controversy in Vientiane.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said earlier the decision to provide fighter cover had been made on consultation with Souvanna's government.

Unger reaffirmed he had consulted with Souvanna regarding protection for the reconnaissance planes but declined to elaborate.

Souvanna said he had proposed that Laotian air force fighters escort the American photo jets.

The Communist Pathet Lao charged in a Peking broadcast that six U.S. jet fighters flew over Khang Khay, the Pathet Lao headquarters in central Laos, and nearby Phong Savang Tuesday and attacked Phong Savang with 12 bombs and two rockets.

Prince Souphanouvong, the Pathet Lao leader, had been expected to complain further about the reported attack today at a meeting in Khang Khay with members of the three-nation International Control Commission, Soviet Ambassador Sergei Afanassiev and British Charge d'Affaires John Denson.

Bad weather forced the helicopters taking the foreign diplomats to Khang Khay to return to Vientiane.

The Pathet Lao claimed its gunners damaged two of the U.S. planes that attacked Phong Savang.

(The New York Times, quoting reliable sources in Washington, said the U.S. jets attacked a Communist gun position in retaliation for the downing of two American jets over the weekend. The Times said President Johnson and his advisers were reported to have ordered the attack to underline U.S. determination to stand firm in Laos. The attack was also interpreted in Washington as an effort to recoup prestige in the wake of the downing of the jets, the Times said.)

Geneva Man Charged In Traffic Fatality

GENEVA, Ohio (AP)—Charles Webster, 29, of Geneva, has been charged with traffic manslaughter in the death of a father of four in a two-car collision on Ohio 34 May 28. Webster was released on $10,000 bond Tuesday after he was charged. He did not enter a plea before County Court Judge Howard T. Warner.

Ralph J. Padavick of Geneva was killed in the wreck south of here. Highway patrolmen said Webster's car crossed the center line on a curve and hit Padavick's car.

Walker Seen Powerless To Stop Rioting

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A witness presented by Edwin A. Walker quoted the former Army major general as saying Walker was powerless to stop the University of Mississippi student riot if he had wanted to.

The trial of the $2-million civil libel suit Walker filed against The Associated Press resumed today.

Talmadge Witt, 43, former Pontotoc, Miss., deputy sheriff, testified Tuesday he was near Walker on the University of Mississippi campus the night of Sept. 30, 1962 during a night-long riot over admission of Negro James H. Meredith. Witt said he heard an Episcopalian minister, the Rev. Duncan Gray beg Walker to stop the student attacks on rioting U.S. marshals who fired tear gas in return.

Witt quoted Walker as saying: "I'm not here to break it up. I didn't come here to break it up. I couldn't break it up if I wanted to."

Witt said, on cross-examination by J. A. Gooch, an Associated Press attorney, that Walker later told a group of the rioting students: "Protest all you want to. They (the marshals) may run out of (tear) gas. Help is on the way thousands are coming."

Witt, and other earlier witnesses, said Walker was asked several times to lead a student charge on the marshals, but each time Walker said he was in Oxford, Miss., merely to observe.

Walker claims in his suit that certain Associated Press stories on his activities at Oxford were false and malicious. The Associated Press, which will present its evidence following Walker's witnesses, contends its accounts were true in fact and substance, and without malice.

Wellsville Volunteers Sought To Clean Park

Mrs. Nancy Palmer, neighborhood chairman, today appealed for volunteers to help clean a section of Wellsville's Hammond Park for the opening of Girl Scout Day Camp Monday at 9 a. m.

Those who plan to help should bring their own tools, she said.

The camp will be from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p. m. daily next week. Registrations are due by Friday. None will be accepted opening day, Mrs. Palmer said.

Building Trade Union Accepts New Contract

CINCINNATI (AP) — Most of the striking building trades workers were expected to be back on their jobs today since the sheet metal workers union accepted a new three-year contract. The sheet metal workers voted 390-40 Tuesday to accept a contract providing for 52.5 cents in hourly increases over the three years. They had been paid $4.24 an hour.

Union officers said their 850 members would return to work in more than 120 shops and building sites, installing heating and cooling equipment. The 200-member reinforced concrete iron workers, lathers and tile setters' union remained out on strike. Both unions went on strike June 1.

2 Get Penalty In Auto Crash

A Midland woman and a local youth whose autos were involved in a crash on the Freeway Sunday night were penalized today in Municipal Court on charges filed by police.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff decreed a suspended fine of $10 for Mrs. V. H. Castelli, 68, of 1070 Beaver Ave., charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

William Junior Hanlon, 19, of 112 Center Ln. was fined $10 and costs on a charge of parking on a highway. The court dismissed a second charge of improper auto registration.

Police said Mrs. Castelli's auto crashed into the rear of Hanlon's disabled car. The Midland woman said she did not see the stalled car because it had no tail lights. Mrs. Castelli and three passengers in her car were injured slightly.

Mrs. Castelli was represented by Atty. Lawrence W. Smith, who entered a plea in mitigation. He told the court that the crash was "inadvertent, simply a lapse on the part of Mrs. Castelli." The judge agreed "there was nothing criminal in this case." In suspending the fine, he ordered Mrs. Castelli to pay the costs.

In another traffic case, Jerome H. Heiney, 34,o f 923 Wood St., Wellsville, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super road." He was cited by the State Highway Patrol June 3 at 6:20 a. m.

A hearing is set Monday for George Dewey Pethel, 34, of 1133 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, cited by the patrol today at 5:20 a. m. on a charge of speeding on the "super road." He posted a $32.50 bond.

Orders Ball To Fly To Athens

Johnson Moves To Warn Greece On Cyprus Crisis

GENEVA (AP) — President Johnson has ordered Undersecretary of State George W. Ball to fly to Athens to warn the Greek government of the serious view the United States takes of the sharpening crisis over Cyprus, American officials said today.

Ball was to leave Geneva in an American military plane today.

He may go later to Ankara for talks with Turkish leaders. He was due back in Washington on Thursday to report to the President.

Ball has been in Geneva since Monday for the closing stage of the United Nations trade and development conference.

President Makarios of Cyprus, leader of the Greek Cypriots, called Tuesday night for an urgent meeting of the U.N. Security Council meeting to "denounce threats of the Turkish government to invade our island."

In a note to heads of state and government he charged that Turkey "has now amassed a a great number of naval and air forces ready for immediate invasion of Cyprus."

He accused the Turks of repeatedly violating air space over Cyprus and dropping arms to Turkish Cypriots.

Foreign Minister Spyros Kyprianou, dispatched by Makarios to arrange for the council meeting, told newsmen he planned to see Council President Arsene Assouan of the Ivory Coast today.

Kyprianou, whose plane landed in Boston because of weather conditions over New York, said Cyprus was relatively calm, but "in view of statements and information we have, we anticipate trouble from Turkey."

Makarios called for council action after repeated invasion alarms had been sounded in both Nicosia and Athens.

There was no indication in Turkey that an invasion force was poised to attack the island where Turkish and Greek Cypriot factions have been engaged in a bitter struggle. The Ankara government has warned, however, that it would invade if it considered it necessary to protect the rights of Turkish Cypriot minority.

GOP Foes Eyeing Aid Cut Of $200 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican foreign aid opponents disclosed today they hope to slice from $200 million to $400 million from the administrations "barebones" foreign aid authorization bill.

The $3.5 - billion measure reaches the amendment stage today.

Rep. E. Ross Adair, R-Ind., told a newsman several alternative money-paring amendments have been prepared and developments on the House floor would determine which would be offered.

He said he planned to attempt no cuts in the military assistance portion of the bill, which amounts to $1,055,000,000.

8 Ordained Ministers Of Evangelical Church

VERMILION, Ohio (AP) — Eight men were ordained ministers of the Evangelical United Brethren (EUB) Church Tuesday night at a session of the Ohio East Conference.

Those ordained, and the churches to which they were assigned, include:

The Rev. Walter Chisholm, Montrose Zion; the Rev. David P. Frees, assistant, St. Paul's, Canton; the Rev. Thomas N. Harper, Marshallville; The Rev. Richard K. Hoover, Greensburg; the Rev. William J. 1,000 Attend Midland High Senior Rites

A record crowd of about 1,000 attended graduation exercises for 92 Midland Lincoln High School seniors Tuesday evening at the school gymnasium.

Other students speaking were Janis Andrews, Bruce Humbert, and Dolores Gutierrez.

The invocation and benediction were given by Fr. Milorad Dobrota, pastor of St. George Serbian Orthodox Church.

Fr. Dobrota also gave the main address at baccalaureate services at the high school Sunday evening. With some 700 in attendance, he spoke on "The Right Thing at the Right Time."

Invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. J. M. Marbrey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Scripture and prayer by the Rev. George H. Bohlender, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

Police Guard Against New Race Rioting

By REX THOMAS

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Watchful police kept a round-the-clock surveillance on the Negro community in Tuscaloosa today, alert for signs of new demonstrations in the wake of Tuesday's bloody street battle.

Negro leaders, some of them in jail as a result of the clash with police, gave no indication of their future course.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. ordered some of his key staff members sent in to Tuscaloosa. City authorities assumed that some effort might be made to keep the demonstrations alive despite the ban on street marches which touched off the wild outbreak of club swinging and rock and bottle throwing.

Ninety-six Negroes went to jail in the aftermath of a 45-minute siege which sent 33 Negroes and a policeman to a hospital with cuts and bruises and tear-gas sickness.

City police and sheriffs deputies, reinforced by plainclothes state investigators, patroled Negro sections through the night but found no evidence of organized Negro activity.

State troopers, some of whom stood guard at the University of Alabama campus in Tuscaloosa just a year ago when two Negroes were admitted to the university, reportedly were ready to move into the city if local authorities asked for them.

The clash between Negro demonstrators and police was the first outbreak of racial violence in this heavily industrialized community since the Autherine Lucy riot eight years ago. Miss Lucy, the first Negro enrolled as a student at the university, was driven from the campus by an angry white mob. Later she was expelled for accusing university authorities of conspiring with the rioting crowd.

THE SECOND DEADLIEST POISON

Tetanus results from the poison released by Clostrium tetani, a microscopic organism which thrives on lack of oxygen. These germs are present almost everywhere and once infected, over 63% of their victims die. Children and adults are equally in danger.

But, Tetanus Toxoid provides almost total immunization if a booster shot is taken every three or four years. The cost is low. Why gamble with your life? If you are not properly immunized against Tetanus, visit your physician as soon as possible. Any scratch or injury can cause Tetanus.

'Ghoulish' Thief Loots Apartment Of Dead Woman

A Wellsville man complained to East Liverpool police Tuesday that a ghoulish thief ransacked the E. 2nd St. apartment of his sister, who died a few days ago.

Lloyd Fielding, 1033 Commerce St., Wellsville, told police the intruder took miscellaneous items from the apartment formerly occupied by his sister, Mrs. Fannie Butler, at 118 E. 2nd St.

Fielding explained he and his wife went to the apartment last Thursday and placed Mrs. Butler's possessions in a series of boxes, preparing to move the property. He said when he and his wife returned Monday they found several of the boxes had been stolen, although there was no sign of a forcible entry.

Fielding said the loss included sheets and pillowcases decorated with fancywork; blankets; clothing, including a wool tweed dress; two rugs; a chair with a light print cover; a large black purse and a white kitchen clock fashioned in the shape of a skillet.

Oak Glen High School's first commencement exercise will be Friday night at 8 in the gymnasium, with the public invited, Principal E. Russell Slack reported. About 1,800 persons are expected.

The 185-member Senior Class will be presented by Principal Slack, and diplomas will be distributed by Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, and Dr. J. M. Brand and John Paul Jones of the Hancock County Board of Education.

Speakers will be Paul Rosso, valedictorian, and Glen Myres, salutatorian.

2 Salineville Youths Penalized In Burglary

LISBON — Two Salineville boys, 16 and 17, were fined and given probation Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin in the burglary of the C. N. Blake general store June 2 in Millport.

Each was fined $25 and ordered to make $25 restitution and their driving permits were suspended for one year.

The youths stole merchandise worth $430 and most was recovered by authorities. Two other youths who had been shown the stolen articles were not involved, according to James Miller, juvenile officer.

Goldwater Speaks Out

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Senator Provides Booklet About His Stand On Issues

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater provided Republican governors with a booklet when some of them wanted clarification on where he stood on the issues. This wasn't a very flattering thing to do to them.

It was like telling them they would know where he stood if they had paid attention and read this booklet: "Sen. Goldwater Speaks Out On the Issues." It had been in circulation nationwide for weeks.

Nevertheless, Goldwater has not always been consistent in what he said over the past few years. This doesn't bother him. He himself has said: "Consistency is not necessarily a virtue."

He said there was something wrong with a public man who didn't change his mind "to meet the developments of the times."

In the 1950s he said former President Harry S. Truman had "fathered all the msideeds of recent years" and was the "architect of everything wrong with America today."

In 1963, he said America needs another decisive president like Truman who, he thought, would go down in history as one of the greatest presidents.

In 1963, Goldwater, who proudly calls himself a conservative, said the true one seeks progress based on proven values of the past while the "so-called liberal" is one who seeks change for the sake of change alone. In 1964 he said he thinks history will rate him a liberal.

In 1962, he said as president he would seriously consider transporting Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist troops from Formosa to the Red China mainland for an invasion. But the next year he said the problem was how to get them there.

Last February he was for using warships to halt the shipment of British buses and French products to Cuba but a month later said he would try to discourage Allied trade with Fidel Castro by "example and use of diplomatic pressure."

In 1961, Goldwater talked of landing armed forces in Cuba to throw out Castro and in 1963 of a blockade, support of Cuban exile attacks, and invasion by the Organization of American States and by "ourselves."

He even thought, he said, he would be for doing "anything necessary to get rid of that cancer (Castro). If it means war, let it mean war." But this year he said "the suggestion that we must either accept communism in Cuba or invade Cuba is defeatist and dangerous nonsense."

He had said it was improper for the government to intervene in school desegregation or to use troops to enforce desegreation orders of the courts. But by last month he changed his view, said "I'm glad when I can recognize I'm wrong."

When he first came to the Senate in 1953, he was all for changing the filibuster rules to cut off lengthy debates. He changed and now says he won't vote to end the anti-civil rights filibuster now in its 75th day.

He said if he was president he would break off diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union but last January added he would need Senate approval to do this. He couldn't have been more wrong.

The Senate must approve treaties but not breaking off diplomatic relations.

He stopped advocating putting Social Security on a voluntary basis and now says his only interest in the system is to improve it by making the pension dollar sound. After he lost the New Hampshire primary in March, his campaign manager said his talk of a voluntary Social Security system was a major boner.

He favors getting rid of the "whole graduated income tax" so that rich and poor pay the same percentage of tax. But the American income tax has always been graduated from the time of the first one in Civil War days under President Abraham Lincoln.

In 1962 and 1963, Goldwater favored getting out of the United Nations. By the latter part of 1963, he was for staying in. By 1964 he said he couldn't recall ever having suggested getting out.

Between 1960 and 1964 Goldwater said so many times he would not seek the Republican presidential nomination that as late as Sept. 15, 1963, he said, "I've said a thousand times I'm going to run for the Senate, nothing more."

But just 11 days before that The Associated Press reported Goldwater had rented the entire 15th floor of a hotel in San Francisco for next month which is when the Republicans hold their nomination convention there.

Then on Jan. 3, 1964, he announced his candidacy and at the same time said he would run for the Senate from Arizona, too, although he had derided Lyndon B. Johnson for running for the vice presidency and the Senate in 1960.

He had said he wouldn't seek both. Now he says he will give up the Senate race if he gets the presidential nomination.

Steelworkers Locals 1212, 1269 Of Midland Set Voting

Two of the major Midland locals of the United Steelworkers Union have set elections. Three others have named officers and a sixth also has set its voting.

Local 1212, the largest with some 6,000 members, will ballot Thursday at the Steelworkers Hall on Midland Ave., Midland. Polls will be open from 6:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. The local represents production workers at the Crucible Steel Co.

To be elected are a president, vice president, general grievance committeeman, recording secretary, financial secretary, treasurer, three trustees, a compensation man, guide and an inside guard.

There are also 30 seeking 10 grievance committeemen posts in departments throughout the mill.

The candidates generally are divided into four different slates, headed by presidential aspirants, Harry Petrosky, incumbent; Joe D'Alesio, immediate past president; Alfred Monaco and Steve Luketich.

Willis Campbell of New Brighton has been named president of Local 5047 of Crucible Titanium. He succeeds Charles Carson of Freedom.

Peter Krizan of Fairview was named as vice president, replacing Sam Zuppe of Midland. Others named were John Tozana of Midland, financial secretary; Phil Corsello, treasurer and Bill Hanlon, trustee, both of Wellsville.

In the race for recording secretary, John Gavron and Ed Cilli, both of Midland, received an equal number of votes and will flip a coin to determine the winner.

An outside and inside guard, compensation man and several grievencemen will be elected at a second election, sometime following the next regular meeting of the local July 2.

Tellers for the election were Don Zapsic, M. Mills and Steve Rosepiler.

The 350-man Local 1269 of the Mackintosh - Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. at Midland has set its election for Monday, according to Ronald Bolton, president.

Some 30 candidates seek the offices of president, vice president, recording secretary, financial secretary, treasurer, guide, guard, compensation man and insurance man.

There are also several grievance committeemen posts to be filled.

Tellers will be D. T. Jolly of Glenmoor, Richard Bloor of Midland, William Hulme of East Liverpool and Fred Mader of Chester.

The polls at the Steelworkers Hall will be open from 7 a.m. to 5 p. m.

Patterson Industries Local 1322 elected June 2 and Crucible Office and Technical Workers Local 3177 elected last week.

Mike Adams, president of Local 5059 Midland Borough Employes, said his 17-man local will conduct its election Thursday at the union hall.

They will vote on president, vice president, treasurer, recording secretary and financial secretary.

Thai Orders Advance Teams Into Borneo

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Thailand ordered advance teams to Borneo today to set up a communications network for Thai teams that will verify withdrawal of Indonesian guerrillas from Malaysian Borneo.

Foreign Office sources said Malaysian and Indonesian negotiators still have not reached agreement on all details of the verification procedure.

Trucker Forfeits

LISBON — Melvin Lee Wise, 23, of Russells Point forfeited a $15 appearance bond Tuesday night in Mayor Dean Stockman's court on charges of failing to stop within the assured clear distance. He was cited in a collision of his truck with the car of William A. Carlisle, 44, of 131 W. High St. as the latter made a left turn into an alley off W. Lincoln Way.

Couple Fined On 3 Charges

In an unusual "family" arrest, an East End man and wife were fined on a total of three traffic charges today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Cited while at the wheels of different cars, Mrs. Rilla Ann Bissell, 23, of 526 Wedgewood St., and her husband, Harold J. Bissell, also 23, each faced the court on charges of crashing the traffic light at the junction of Dresden Ave. and the Freeway. The husband also was accused of operating an auto without license plates.

The two pleaded guilty to all charges. Mrs. Bissell and her husband drew fines of $5 and costs each on the light-crashing charge. The husband was fined an additional $25 and costs for lack of license plates.

Police said they were cited at 6 this morning by Patrolmen Paul Carter and Ronald Brookes.

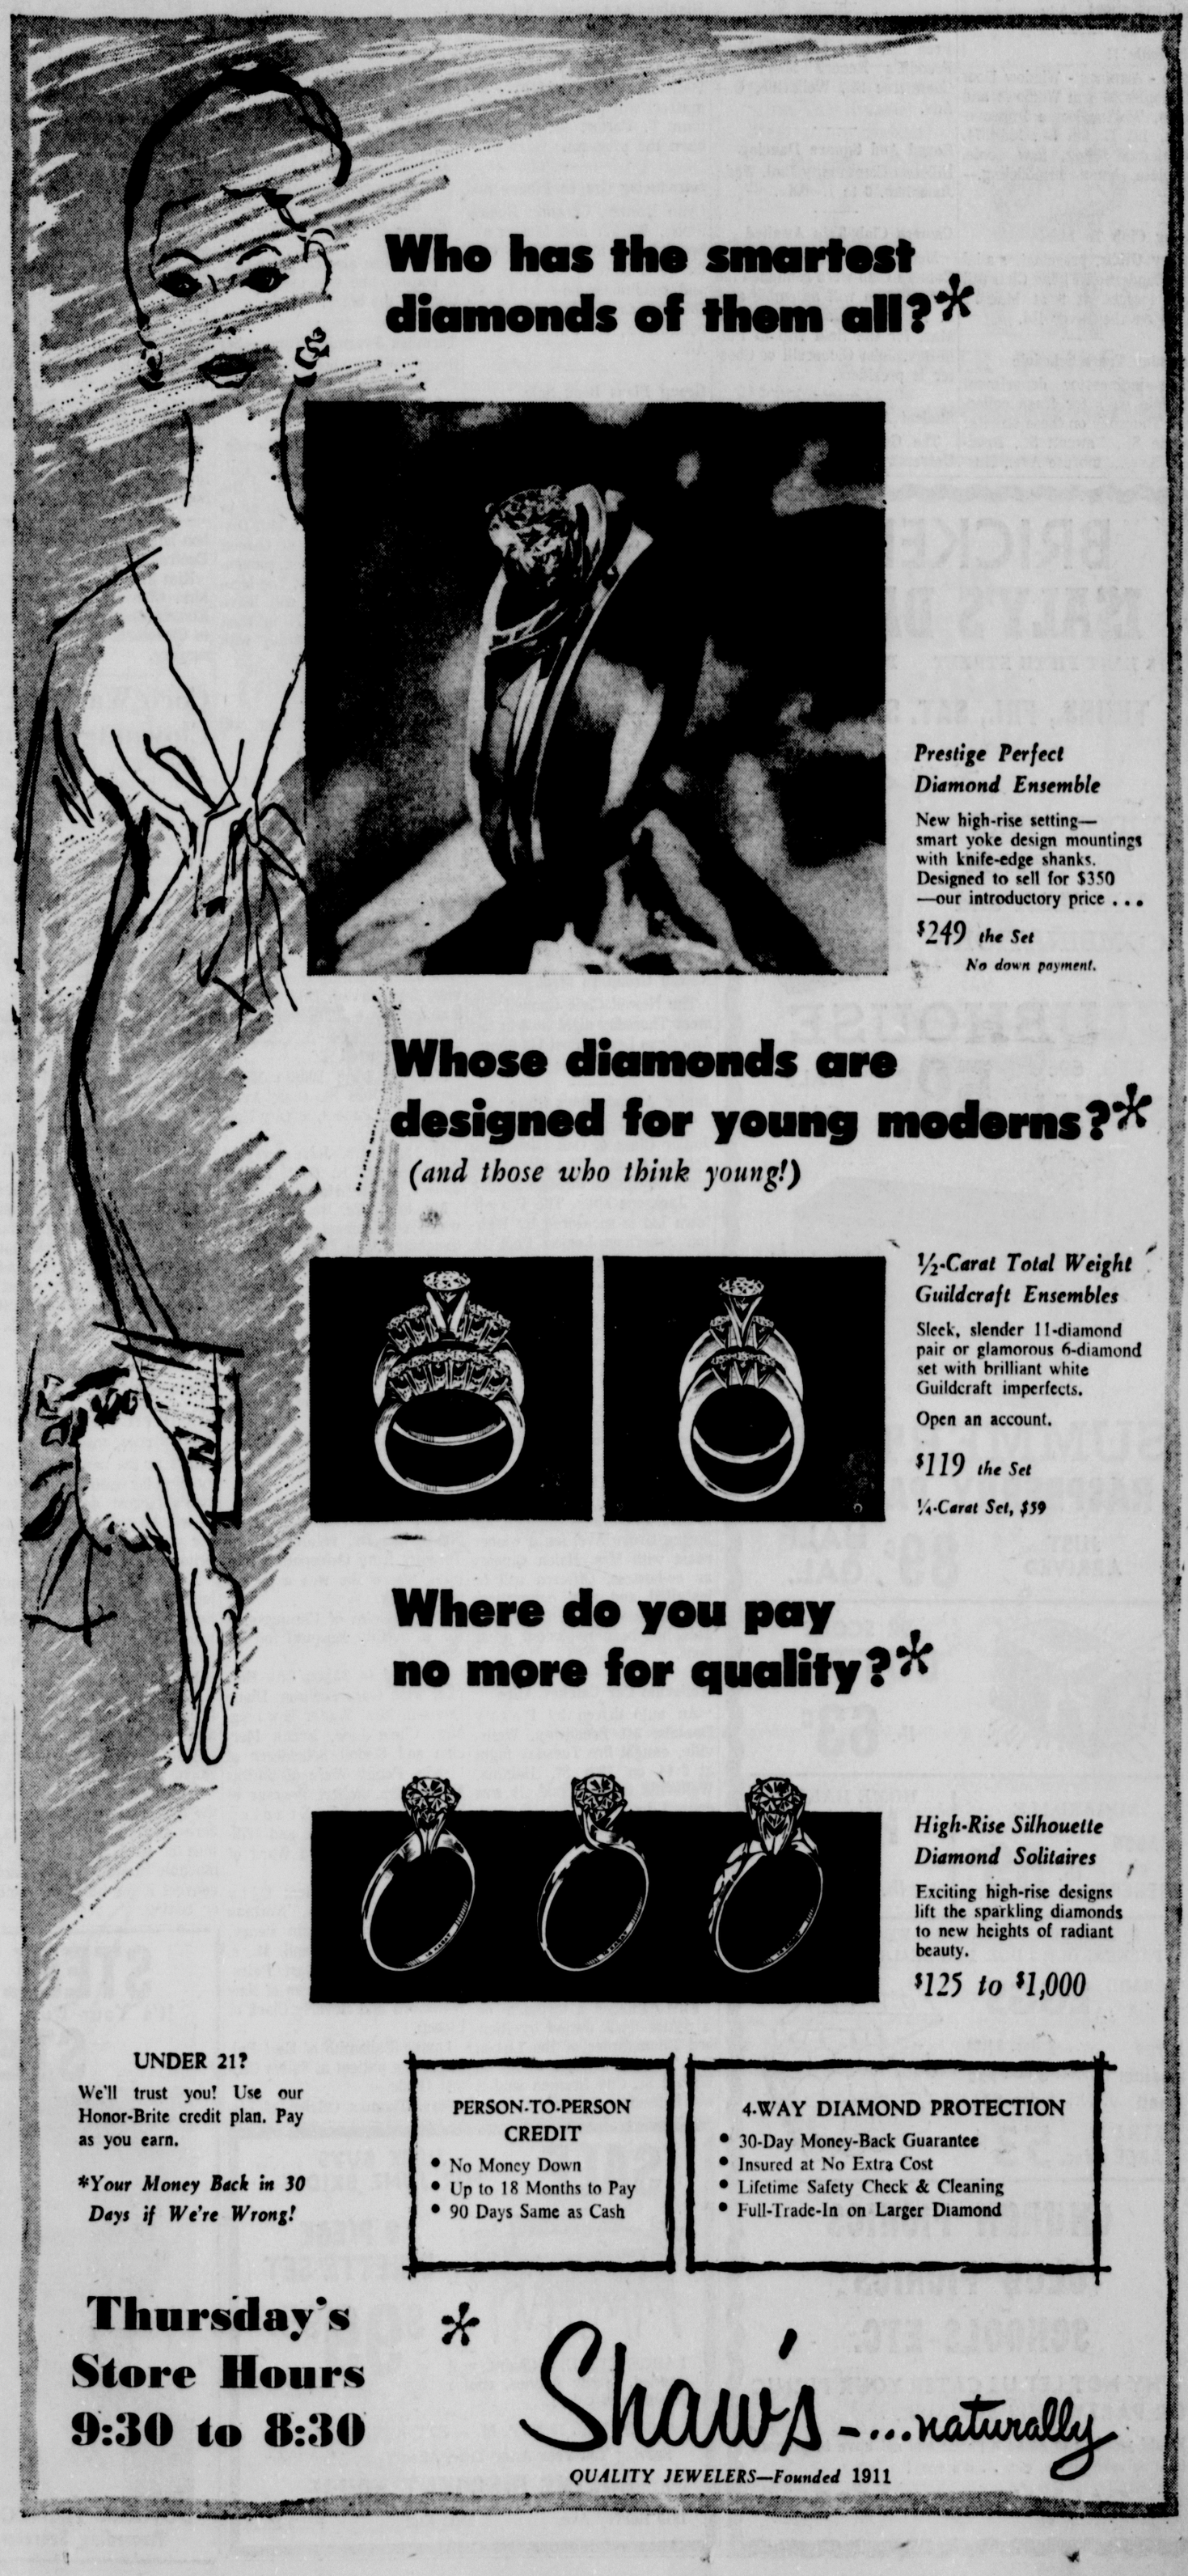

Hearings are set Tuesday for Herman Hoppel and Larry Charles Yost, both of R. D. 3, who were cited early Sunday at the same intersection.

Hoppel is accused of driving without an operator's permit and speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. Yost is charged with speeding and passing in a no-passing zone.

Guide For Horses

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Traveling with your horse this summer? Then you might need some advice on where to stay. And help seems to be on the way. The Chamber of Commerce here received a letter asking for information on places in the area that lodge horses. G.P. Monard, a Colorado resident who requested the information, said he was compiling a book, "Travel Guide for Horses," to aid those traveling with their steeds.

In Bold Defiance Of Law

Gangs Attack Marchers In St. Augustine Rioting

By DON MCKEE

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—Gangs of screaming white men and youths attacked white and Negro marchers with fists and feet in bold defiance of the law in this old city.

The slugging, kicking attackers moved in on their victims—marching two abreast on a downtown sidewalk—and then fled when policemen armed with clubs moved in Tuesday night.

About a dozen demonstrators were assaulted. The violence ended when marchers returned to the church where they began their protest.

Police headquarters said there were no arrests.

The march came within a few hours after a federal judge in Jacksonville ordered police to lift their ban on night demonstrations and to reduce bail for a group of marchers arrested earlier.

"Despite what happened, we are going to continue protesting unjust discrimination," said the leader of the march, the Rev. Andrew Young.

Young was struck in the mouth, knocked down and beaten but not hurt seriously. Wiping at a cut on his lip, Young shrugged off questions whether he would ask for federal protection.

He is an aide to the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, who was scheduled to arrive here today.

Tuesday night's march started from St. Mary's Baptist church, a few blocks from the downtown area. The target, as in past marches, was the old slave market in the city park near the riverfront.

Nearly 300 demonstrators walked quietly downtown without incident. As they headed back toward the church they ran into trouble. White marchers were singled out.

A big white man, weighing about 230 pounds, pummeled to the pavement the Rev. William England, 33, Boston University chaplain, who is white. The assailant then methodically kicked and stomped the chaplain, slumped with his hands over his head.

The thud of the kicks was punctuated with groans from the victim. A slender Negro boy about 12, threw his body over the chaplain.

Policemen attempted no arrests of the assailants.

Coco Was Just Clowning About

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Coco, Great Britain's greatest clown who was awarded the Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth last year, was recalling the funniest thing that ever happened to him.

Coco—Michael Polakovs, who was visiting Sarasota — said he and his son, Coco II, were performing with the Bertram Mills Circus in England.

"We were to climb up a ladder and my boy was to be in front of me," he said. "Halfway up, he was supposed to lose his trousers. I was to try to help him with his trousers and while he struggled, a bucket of water he was carrying on his shoulder was supposed to spill on my head.

"Well, he dropped the bucket and almost knocked me out. I was dizzy for a long time.

"When we got backstage, I was just about to tongue-lash him for being careless when Mr. Mills walked by and said, 'Boys that was great — keep it in the act.' "

Texas Stadium Fans Assured Of Comfort

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Spectators at the new Harris County circular stadium — the nation's largest domed structure — will be comfortable no matter what happens to their favorites on the playing field.

As described in "Steel Facts," published by American Iron and Steel Institute, the huge 642-foot-wide, clear span, steel framed building will be completely air conditioned.

As further luxury touches, 44,000 seats will be upholstered, and 6,000 low - level, electronically adjusted loudspeakers will make listening easier.

Scheduled to open in time for the 1965 baseball season, the 9.5-acre stadium will require 9,000 tons of steel in its dome and movable stands, which quickly convert it for baseball, football or boxing.

Peace Talks Resume In Paper Strike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Union and management representatives planned to resume negotiations today aimed at settling a strike which has shut down this city's two daily newspapers.

Today's meeting, set for 1:30 p.m., is the first since the Printers' and mailers' unions struck the Dispatch Printing Co. Monday.

The last paper to publish here was the Citizen-Journal's Monday morning edition. Shortly after the strike began, the afternoon Dispatch announced it was suspending publication, and the Citizen-Journal, a Scripps-Howard paper, failed to publish Tuesday.

The strikers, members of the Columbus Typographical Union No. 5 and the Columbus Mailers Union No. 103, have been working without a contract since Jan. 2.

The unions, affiliates of the AFL - CIO International Typographical Union, said they decided to strike when they became dissatisfied with the progress of negotiations.

Among the disputed issues is a pension plan management wants to substitute for the unions' current plan which they have had since 1951.

The Columbus Newspaper Guild, which has jurisdiction over the Citizen-Journal's editorial employes and the Dispatch's circulation department, has voted to honor the striking unions' picket lines. Dispatch editorial employes are not affiliated with a union.

Participating in today's negotiations along with union and management representatives is federal mediator George Bell, who announced resumption of negotiations Tuesday night.

Way Cleared In House Vote On Repealing Excise Taxes

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

EXCISES: The way has been cleared for the House to vote this week on repealing excise taxes on some of the items dear to women: furs, cosmetics, jewelry and luggage and handbags.

Republicans want to halve the 10 per cent tax this year and eliminate it entirely next year.

In an action Tuesday, the Rules Committee made it possible for the GOP proposal to be taken up in conjunction with a bill—cleared for debate Thursday—to extend a variety of excise taxes for another year.

He instructed William C. Foster, chief U.S. negotiator at the 17-nation conference, to leave no stone unturned in attempting to find safeguarded alternatives to the arms race.

EXTRA FUNDS: President Johnson signed Tuesday a $1,336,687,143 emergency appropriations bill which included $41,370,000 to help Alaska recover from its recent earthquake.

The largest allotment, however, was $1,003,200,000 for the cost of military pay raises voted last year.

Woman Suffers Nail Injury; Midland Youth Hurt In Fall

A woman horse trainer injured on a nail and a Midland boy hurt in a fall from bed were treated early today at City Hospital. Seven other area residents were treated at the hospital Tuesday.

Joan Bencivenga, 29, of the Travelers Hotel, horse trainer at Waterford Park, was treated at 7:15 a. m. for a wound of the right upper arm suffered on a nail.

Kevin Petties, 8, son of Charles Petties, 338 Penn Ave., Midland, received a cut of the lip and a finger in a fall from the top of a bunk bed.

James Williams, 24, of 643 Riley Ave. was treated last night for a puncture wound of the left foot after he stepped on a nail.

Struck by a stone, LouAnn Grafton, 3, daughter of Richard Grafton, 1260 Parshall St., Wellsville, received a cut of the head.

Bryan Illig, 1½, son of Thomas Illig, 616 Owens Rd., Wellsville, suffered a cut of the left foot on a piece of glass.

William Turner, 17, son of Russell Turner of Glenmoor, received a cut of the foot when he stepped on a sharp object at Beaver Creek.

James Brewer, 8, son of Richard Brewer, 1074 Peake St., was treated for a cut thumb suffered on glass.

Going on a vacation? If there's ground coffee in a can, put it in the freezer; it will be pleasant to have it on hand—its freshness somewhat protected — when you return.

Soviet Space Woman Gives Birth To Girl

MOSCOW (AP)—The world's only space woman, Valentina Nikolayevna - Tereshkova, gave birth to a daughter last Sunday, the Soviet news agency Tass announced today.

The baby's father is Soviet spaceman Andrian Nikolayev, who orbited the earth in August 1962, with Lt. Col. Pavel Popovich. Valentina orbited the earth in company with Valery Bykovsky in June 1963.

Both mother and daughter are well, Tass said.

Usually reliable sources said the baby weighed nearly 7 pounds.

Valentina and Nikolayev were married in Moscow last Nov. 3 and spent their honeymoon touring South Asian countries.

Although the baby is the first born to an astronaut couple, Gherman Titov was the first astronaut to become a father after orbiting the earth. His wife gave birth to a daughter, Tanya, last September.

Valentina, whose married name according to Russian custom is Nikolayevna-Tereshkova, is 27. Nikolayev is 34.

Three days ago the doctor for the Soviet astronauts, Dr. Evgeny Petrov, reported that Valentina was in the best of health. During her pregnancy she has been studying at the Military Aeronautic Engineering Academy and recently passed examinations in English and mathematics.

The astronauts were married in a televised white wedding at the flower - decked Palace of Marriages in Moscow. At the reception afterward, with Premier Khrushchev as host, the newlyweds were given a "symbolic present" by Soviet military leaders. It was a little doll —a girl.

Khrushchev said he was a sort of foster father to the young couple, both of whom lost their fathers during World War II.

"I didn't bring any baby buggies or pacifiers," he told them. "If you have a baby, the gifts won't fail to come."

All Soviet space pilots were on hand for the wedding, which got more public attention than any Russian marriage since Czar Nicholas II married Queen Victoria's granddaughter in 1893.

About 14 of every 100 Alaskans are Eskimos, Aleut, and Tlingit, Tsimshian, Haida, and Athapaskan Indians — most of whom work as mechanics or miners, and in fisheries and on construction projects.

Jurors Rule Against Man In Injury Claim

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury deliberated only 20 minutes Tuesday before returning a verdict for the defendants in the civil action filed by Donald F. Whitacre of Salem, against the Mullins Manufacturing Corp. of Salem and the Ohio Bureau of Workmen's Compensation.

Whitacre was injured on Jan. 13, 1958, while working at the Mullins plant and in 1962 he filed a claim that his injury caused him to suffer tension headaches and a nervous condition.

The jury decided that the headaches and tension were not related to his first injury and refused his request to participate in Workmen's Compensation. His claim previously had been rejected by appeals machinery of the Workmen's Compensation Bureau.

West Virginia Church Units Take Strong Stand On Issues

By The Associated Press

Two West Virginia church organizations took strong stands Tuesday on controversial issues, including birth control and racial bigotry.

The West Virginia Synod of the Presbyterian Church, USA, passed a resolution at its state meeting at Elkins calling on the state to provide birth control materials and information to any welfare recipient requesting them.

The resolution said the state should provide "a morally sound program of letting every child born into a family be a wanted child."

The West Virginia Methodist Conference went into the third day of its state meeting today at Buckhannon after passing several sweeping resolutions Tuesday.

The Methodist urged support of peaceful racial demonstrations, integration of church congregations and Sunday closing laws. The delegates also opposed capital punishment, smoking and the military draft.

A resolution supporting birth control clinics also was approved by the Methodists, but the proposal was more general than the Presbyterian measure and did not call specifically for state distribution of birth control equipment.

In other action Tuesday, the Methodist conference called for voluntary religious exercises in public schools and passed other resolutions attacking alcohol and gambling.

Dandy Watering Hole

BILLINGS (AP) — Billings may have the biggest birdbath in the country. Rains have filled a depression in the bell tower atop the First Congregational Church. Birds think it's a dandy watering hole.

Resident Of Chester Forfeits In Car Upset

Janice K. Hendershot, 21, of 332 Carolina Ave., Chester, forfeited a $25 appearance bond Tuesday night in Mayor Dean Stockman's court at Lisbon on charges of reckless operation.

She was cited at 12:55 p.m. Sunday after her car went out of control and through a fence, landing upside down in Mill Site Creek. She lost control trying to pass traffic on a Lisbon street.

Bruce Costanzo of Cream Ridge Rd., former teacher at Beaver Local High School, waded into the creek and pulled Miss Hendershot out of the car before police arrived.

Networks Threaten Our Poverty War

It looked for awhile as if the three TV networks were to be President Johnson's biggest ally in the war against poverty. In the recent Oregon and California primaries, ABC, CBS and NBC hired more poll watchers than General Motors has riveters.

Hal Humphrey

It wasn't just coincidence that national unemployment figures for May showed a drop for the first time since last February. Now, however, the networks are getting ready to chicken out before the big election in November.

THEY ARE OFFERING the olive branch to one another and making plans to pool their vote-collecting resources.

Instead of each network's hiring its own poll watcher, one Boy Scout or Junior Chamber of Commerce member will be doing the job at each precinct polling place for all three networks.

Besides putting a damper on the rise in employment throughout the country (cutting it by two-thirds), this pooling business will eliminate a lot of the sport in watching election returns on TV next November.

It was great fun, for example, to see Goldwater winning on CBS and losing on NBC, according to totals being shown at exactly the same time. On ABC all of the returns aren't in yet. That's why Rockefeller conceded late. He still could win on ABC.

IF BOBBY KENNEDY'S Department of Justice (antitrust division) is on the ball, it will charge the three networks with conspiracy and collusion, should they persist in this threat to pool poll watchers.

Actually it is undemocratic and perhaps even un-American to have each network showing the same vote totals at a given time.

Both Republicans and Democrats have worried in the past over the three-hour time lag between the east and west coasts. An early-vote landslide for a certain candidate in the East can lull his followers into complacency and staying home in the West.

But with each network showing a different vote total (because of the poll watchers' getting through quicker than others), everyone is kept confused and on his toes—East and West.

BEYOND THAT, of course, is the unemployment problem. Why should the networks be allowed to get together not only to spoil our fun, but also to get by with one-third the work force on election night? They have plenty of money to squander. Let them do it before the computer machines take over completely.

A network election consultant observing the chaotic scene at CBS headquarters during last week's California Republican primary was moved to say to a colleague, "I wonder if the Republicans have considered putting up one of these computers to run against Johnson. It might be their only chance."

For a brief moment that night the CBS humans had some grave doubts about their machines. Rockefeller was gaining Could the computers' vote projection analysis be wrong, they were asking themselves.

LUCKILY, Goldwater did win, or else we might have come face to face with a moment all of hardly dare think about. What if the poor humans doing the counting finally had announced that Goldwater lost to Rockefeller?

Would CBS have stood firm, maintaining that the machines have got to be right? What recourse would Rockefeller take? He might confront the big master computer and charge hotly, "You are wrong!"

Then in a scene such as we see in "Outer Limits" or Rod Sterling's "Twilight Zone," the wheels would spin and the lights flash and Rockefeller would shrink to pygmy size before our eyes and be sucked into a slot in the machine marked "Waste."

I'm not even sure that what I'm writing here should be typed on a typewriter.

Uncle Sam Complains About Water Bill

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—Uncle Sam took on the role of a private citizen here and complained about his water bill.

The director of the Veterans Administration domiciliary, E. C. McDaniel, told city officials the domiciliary's water bill had jumped 84 per cent under a new rate plan and he urgently needed an adjustment.

Otherwise, he said, he would be compelled to readjust his budget to the extent of firing at least one employe.

Dance Set At Salem

SALEM — The Women's Republcian Club will hold a round and square dance and card party Tuesday night, June 30, at the former Century Building on E. State St. A buffet lunch will be served. Tickets are available from members or may be purchased at the door.

TV Highlights

TONIGHT

7:30, WIIC, Virginian: "Brother Thaddeus." A former outlaw has a hard time convincing townspeople he has become religious.

9, WSTV, Beverly Hillbillies: Having finally struggled through the sixth grade, Jed Clampett's nephew, Jethro, seems destined to be robbed of the honor of participating in the graduation ceremony with his little classmates.

9, WIIC, Espionage: "Medal for a Turn Coat". A German who attempted to effect an armistice between his country and England during World War II is shot when he returns to his native land to accept belated honors.

9:30, WSTV, Dick Van Dyke: Rob has to choose between saving his marriage and protecting his professional integrity when Laura wants to star in the Parents Council production he is directing.

10, WIIC, Eleventh Hour: "Sunday Father". Cody Evans can't adjust to a divorce condition that permits him to see his son on Sundays only. Jaye P. Morgan is a guest star and is featured with Red Buttons.

11:15, WTAE, Movie: "Tortilla Flat," starring Spencer Tracy and Hedy Lamarr. Screen version of Steinbeck's classic novel depicting the life and poverty of Mexican peasants in California.

Beef Producers Set Meeting On Tuesday

The summer twilight meeting of the Columbiana - Mahoning Beef Producers committee will be held Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Wilbur Coy farm, a mile southwest of Salem, on County Rd. 400, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Members of 4-H and Future Farmers of America and producers will exhibit their skill in judging two rings of cattle, to be followed by a tour of the farm.

James Werner, beef specialist at Ohio State University, will assist with the judging and will speak.

Burns Prove Fatal

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Marion L. Strawsburg of Dayton died Tuesday of burns suffered when his milk truck overturned near Wright - Patterson Air Force Base. The 50-year-old victim died in the base hospital a few hours after the mishap.

Boy Failing 5th Grade Subjects Going To College

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Billy Green, who is failing his fifth grade subjects, is going to college this summer.

Billy, 12, scored 200 on an intelligence test administered by the University of South Florida. The genius category starts at 140.

County school Supt. Woodrow Garden says Billy reads eight to 12 advanced science books a week but struggles with his fifth grade work, perhaps because it doesn't challenge him.

The board of Brevard Junior College voted Tuesday to allow Billy to enroll in one course.

Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Green of Eau Gallie, Fla., probably will take a mathematics or science course.

"We want to determine what kind of program he should have," said Garden.

Church Youths Plan Hammondsville Rally

The Columbiana County Youth-for-Christ group will hold a rally at Stanton Local High 7:30 p. m.

Featured will be a science film, "City of the Bees," and award of a camera to anyone with the correct key. Several keys have been mailed while others may be obtained at the rally.

The public is invited and those needing rides from East Liverpool are to meet at the Community Mission on Broadway by 6:15 p. m.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Hindsight Isn't Always Better

Ida Jean Kain

Male Complaint: "Before women prance around in stretch pants they ought to check the going-away view in motion. An overweight woman, or even a pudgy teen - ager in form - fitting gear—terrible. I wish you would devote a column to the subject.

"Only slim girls with streamlined hips should ever wear 'em. . . and then not at the National Airport," our correspondent emphasized.

Touche: It's the blushing truth, stretch pants call for callipygian curves. The big problem is the fact that the gluteus maximus, that rather massive muscle upholstering the back of the hips, is naturally fleshier on woman's figure than on a man's figure.

HIPS CAN loom large even for the normal weight. While the size of the hips is influenced by the amount of fat padding, streamlining also depends on the tone in the muscle which forms the curve of the hips. Moreover, the gluteus medius, the short, thick muscle which flanks the hips on either side just below the waist, needs tonetoo.

Career girls ask if it's sitting that spreads the hips. Actually it is not; that is, sitting per se doesn't add padding. So the 40-hour week cannot be blamed for 40-inch hips. But sitting isn't exercising, and lack of exercise leads to flabbiness. Flabby muscles are less shapely and bulk out, and there you are.

Position: Sit on floor, leaning slightly back to bring weight to bear on upper hipline, knees bent to shift angle of roll. Have arms out at sides.

Action: Slowly and heavily r-o-l-l along one thighline, and wack across hips to other thigh line. Push with palm of one hand and brace with the other. Roll 12 counts, later 25.

To banish a general spread:

Action: Roll rhythmically across hip spread, pushing with one hand, bracing with the other. Make this a slow, heavy roll...rolling 25 counts. Hit a rhythm.

Action: Raise top leg, pull toes toward instep and make wide circles from the hips, circling 12 counts in one direction, 12 in reverse direction. Change sides and repeat.

Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for Slim Hips In A Hurry. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Lisbon Lionettes To Operate Booth At Club's Street Fair

The Lisbon Lionettes completed plans at its meeting Monday night to operate the golf game booth at the Lions Club's annual street fair tonight through Saturday.

Mrs. Jackie Rouse was enrolled at the meeting at the home of Mrs. Melvin Brown Jr. of the Canton Rd. and the pledge of membership was given by Mrs. Margaret Galbreath.

Hospital Event Set

The group will present a program for patients at the Oakland Veterans' Hospital in Pittsburgh Aug. 16.

Next meeting July 8 will be at the home of Mrs. Apel of East Liverpool.

Seventy - eight relatives and friends attended the open house reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jan Halverstadt, newlyweds, Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Halverstadt, of the Elkton Rd.

Peonies and orange blossoms arranged in cut glass centered the buffet table, overlaid in white linen. Miss Kathy Halverstadt was in charge of the register. Mrs. Delbert Stiler of Leetonia and Mrs. Kent Schmidt of Lisbon presided at the tea service and punch bowl.

Assistants Listed

Others assisting were Mrs. Kenneth Clapsaddle, Mrs. Mark Arnold, Mrs. Bruce Keslar, Mrs. Orrie Taylor, Mrs. Gerald Weinstock and Mrs. Ray Alexander.

The Victory Club was entertained by Mrs. Marion Figley of E. Lincoln Way Monday evening and her daughter, Mrs. John Kelly, of Salem Rd. was a guest.

Extensive Weevil Damage To Alfalfa Seen In Hancock

Most of Hancock County's 125 farmers who grow over 2,200 acres of alfalfa face a "crisis" because two - thirds of the feed value of the first cutting will be lost by weevil damage.

Oliver Johnson, county agricultural agent, said the weevil is eating the foliage off the plants and by the time much of it is harvested, all that will be left will be veins of the leaves and stems. The first cutting produces the most tonnage, he added.

However, not all the farms are involved. "Last fall, growers were informed that it was probable alfalfa weevil would be very destructive this year," he said.

"They were advised what the most effective treatments were and how to apply them. Hillcrest Farms, the Children's Home farm, Charles Pugh and W. C. Huff made a fall treatment in late October. This proved very effective.

"This spring, growers were advised the treatment they could use as soon as feeding showed up in tips of one-half of the plants. I know of only one grower who followed this recommendation," Johnson said.

Johnson pointed out that there was actually no proof that the weevils would be destructive this year, only a prediction and an assumption.

He advised spraying the second crop with Malathion or Diazion if extensive damage shows up in the second growth. Alfalfa exceeds all other crops in the county other than pasture and woodland, Johnson said.

Meeting Set June 18 For Area Beekeepers

LISBON — Area beekeepers will hold the first of a series of twilight meetings June 18 at 7 p. m. at the Leroy Schweitzer home on East Palestine R. D. 2.

Emerson Stone, Jefferson County apiarist, will be principal speaker and several colonies will be inspected.

Charles Vincent of Salem, chairman, will preside, and Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture, said any interested persons may attend.

Radio, TV Networks, AP To Pool Election Returns

NEW YORK (AP)—The three major radio-television networks and The Associated Press will pool the collection of election returns in the November presidential, senatorial and gubernatorial races.

United Press International was also reported considering participation in the program, to be called Network Election Service.

The announcement Tuesday, issued after a meeting of officials of the organizations, said the service will use more than 100,000 reporters to cover returns at the precinct or county level.

The announcement added:

"Network Election Service will be administered by a board of directors consisting of one representative from each network. They will be Arnold Snyder, manager of election coverage for ABC News; William Eames, editorial director of the CBS News election unit; and Frank Jordan, manager of election coverage for NBC News. The Associated Press will participate as a nonvoting member of Network Election Service.

"Returns will be reported simultaneously to each of the three individual networks, which will post such returns on a state-by-state basis in their respective studios on election night. In addition, statewide totals in the presidential elections will be relayed to a single tabulating center in New York, which will maintain the running national tabulation on presidential returns. The tabulating center will then transmit its national totals to each network, so that the same national figure will be available to each network simultaneously.

"Under the agreement reached at meetings today, each network is free to continue individual election analysis systems, which in the main involve the analysis of returns from representative precincts. Each network will bear the responsibility of manning such precincts and communicating the results. These returns, however, will not be included in network election service returns posted by the networks."

Elmer Lower, president of American Broadcasting Co. News; Fred W. Friendly, president of Columbia Broadcasting System News; William R. McAndrew, National Broadcasting Co. executive vice president in charge of NBC News; and Wes Gallagher, general manager of The Associated Press, commenting on the step taken, said jointly:

"The creation of Network Election Service, is, we believe, a great step forward in the gathering and dissemination of news. The American voter and the public at large will be the beneficiaries of faster, and most accurate returns. At the same time, network election service will do much to eliminate the confusion created by several different vote counts, used on reports from different precincts. We expect Network Election Service to become the authoritative source of returns in all future elections."

The meeting was held in the Columbia Broadcasting System headquarters.

Gallagher, in a separate statement, said:

"We hope that this pool participation will be the first step toward creating a national election bureau which would collect vote returns at all state levels for all members of the press, newspapers, radio and television. In this way we could not only render a better service to our members and the public but also in the long run effect economies.

"The Associated Press will continue to report and count the state races since these are not included in this year's pool arrangement.

"These include races for state offices other than governor and senate and various state propositions that are always on the November ballots.

Addresses Governor's Conference

Lausche Says He's Weary Of Franco's Criticism

CLEVELAND (AP)—Declaring that he was weary of criticism of the Franco government of Spain and Salazar in Portugal, U. S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche told governors attending their national conference here it seems there are many persons "who would prefer Communism to anti - Communist friends."

This nation can no longer be particular about choosing allies to combat the growing communist menace, the former Ohio governor said at a formal state dinner Tuesday night. Lausche filled the spot that had been set for President Johnson at the main social event of the 56th annual conference. The President was unable to fit the conference into his schedule.

"Too often," Lausche said, "there has been repetition of the statement that the purpose of the communist bloc is to destroy our nation and participate in its burial. I, of course have a disbelief in dictatorships; however, if a foreign people are to have a dictatorship, I would want it friendly to the west, not allied to the communist bloc.

"As for Cuba," he continued, "we should not be laboring with the idea that Castro, our enemy, should be removed, not by a friendly right-wing dictatorship, but only by a democratic form of government favorable to our cause. The latter situation, of course, would be the preferable one, but if that is not attainable it will be to our advantage to have a government, whatever its form, that is hostile to the communist bloc. . . ."

Lausche, a Democrat who has at times been critical of the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, said "no nation, nor any combination of nations can destroy us from without.

"If we are to fail, it will be because of the weakness of our domestic management and the unwillingness of our people to recognize stern realities."

Coast Guard Auxiliary Plans National Safe Boating Week

Flotilla 77 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary today announced plans for the observance of National Safe Boating Week June 28-July 4.

Robley Evans, commander, is chairman.

The purpose of the observance is keeping the millions of boat "skippers" safety - conscious throughout the entire year, he said.

Boating is one of the nation's fastest growing sports, but it has not been plagued with an alarming rise in boating accidents because of the emphasis put on safety.

This year, more than 750 Coast Guard Auxiliary flotillas, 350 Power Squadrons, 370 clubs affiliated with the Outboard Boating Club of America, the Red Cross, marine dealers and other interested groups are joining for the observance.

Evans and William Keim, flotilla training officer, said free safety inspections will be conducted by members.

The inspection is not compulsory but boats passing the courtesy examination will be issued official decals showing they meet federal equipment requirements.

No report is made of any deficiency found.

The time and location of inspections will be announced later.

When boating on federal waters, the law requires a life-saving device for everyone aboard. Other regulations call for proper lights and a fire extinguisher on boats of closed construction. Craft from 16 to 25 feet in length must have a horn or hand whistle audible for at least a half mile, while a whistle and a bell audible for at least one mile are required for larger pleasure craft.

Not required by law but rather by common sense are items such as a compass, distress flares, an extra can of fuel, tool kit, fenders, flashlight, first aid kit, paddle, line and anchor.

Woman's Death Ruled As Drowning-Suicide

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The coroner has ruled drowning-suicide in the death of a former mental patient recovered from the Scioto River near the downtown Broad Street bridge.

The victim, Alice Millsot, about 50, was seen floating in the river Tuesday and was recovered a short time later. Officials said she had been a patient at the Columbus State Hospital earlier this year.

Lisbon Nurse 'Quits,' Board Delays Action

LISBON — The Board of Education received the resignation of Mrs. Mildred Ashbridge as school nurse Tuesday night but took no action, although the resignation of a teacher was accepted.

Mrs. Ashbridge, of East Palestine, reported on her duties and complained about the school administration during her eight years service with the system.

The board accepted the resignation of Miss Lynn Elliott, also of East Palestine, as fourth grade teacher at McKinley School.

Cornell Monda, school psychologist, gave his report for school term from Sept. 1, 1963, through June 5, and requested that the board consider him for salary adjustments when it has the money.

Bus storage rentals were approved for which the state reimburses the board.

It also authorized the purchase of physics laboratory equipment totaling $517.16 for John Spina, instructor, subject to Title III aid. If received, the board will pay half and the state half.

The board refused to purchase a new Thermo-Fax "secretary" for McKinley School at present.

Purchase of the Croft Educational Service for teachers for one year at a cost of $48.50 was authorized but renewal of their subscription of the National Public School Public Relations Association at a cost of $15 was refused.

The board discussed cleaning of the art and ceramics room at Lincoln School and the distribution of the equipment.

Supt. Payne reported on the summer maintenance program, purchase of new freezer for the McKinley cafeteria, remodeling of the Lincoln School shower room and new lockers, summer reading program in which 20 have registered so far, and the school levy to be placed on ballot at the November election.

Bills totaling $55,657.70 were ordered paid, including $34,670.50 for payroll, $5,948.75 for supplies, $10,522 for retirement and $4,516.45 as county tax reduction.

Next meeting will be July 7 at 7:30 p. m. after the budget session at 7.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: So now I'm a prostitute. According to you, that is. In a recent column you said, "When sex is used by a wife as payment for favors and is withheld as punishment, it places the marriage at the level of prostitution."

Well, what else can a woman do when sex is the only effective weapon she has? I've been married to this character for 18 years and it's the only approach that works.

My husband is a professional man with an income that exceeds $40,000 a year. Almost every woman I know gets an allowance from her husband. But not me. My husband doesn't believe a wife needs an allowance. He says, "What for? You're home all day."

The only way I can get any money out of him is to nail him when he's in an amorous mood. It isn't quite as commercial as it sounds, Ann, but that's about the size of it.

Now, do you blame me?—THE PROFESSIONAL AMATEUR.

Dear Amateur: If this has been going on for 18 years, you aren't going to change it. A man with your husband's twisted concept of married love is not about to be retrained.

A bouquet of skunk cabbage to him, however, for reducing you to such a level. And my deepest sympathy to you. You've missed it all.

Weary Of Wanderers

Dear Ann: Will you please tell retired relatives to stay home?

Our third daughter was married last year and we converted her room to a library—but there still are two empty bedrooms. We'd like to keep them intact for our children and their families when they come to visit, but if this parade of retired aunts and uncles doesn't stop, we're going to sell our home and move into an apartment-hotel.

Since last August we have had uninvited guests almost continuously. We wanted to take a vacation in October but couldn't go because we had company.

Is there a way to protect our selves against free-loading kin without creating hard feelings? —TRAPPED.

Dear Trapped: Probably not, so go ahead and create some hard feelings. You will have lost nothing of value if these people cross you off their travel maps.

Floored By Kids

Dear Ann: My husband and I are friendly with a nice couple who come to our home every other week to play cards. They have two sons who are the same ages as our boys, so we take our children when we go to their home, and they bring their children when they come to us.

We know that normal boys are bubbling over with energy and we don't expect them to be angels but we do insist that our children respect other people's property. These friends let their boys wear cowboy boots which have cleats on the bottom and they have just about wrecked our floors. Our own sons wear tennis shoes in the house.

Next month we are having our floors redone. I dread to think of what those two kids will do to the new floor. Do I dare say anything to the parents? You once said in your column. "Floors are to walk on," when someone wrote about the effects of high heels on vinyl.—UN. D. CIDED.

Dear Un: Floors ARE to walk on, Lady, but cleats on cowboy boots are not normal-in-the-house footwear. If you allow those kids to ruin your new floors with their cleats you've got oatmeal where your brains belong.

Ask them to leave their boots by the front door and offer your sons' spare tennis shoes or suggest they run around in their sox.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Documents Circulated

33 Governors Favor, 10 Seen Against Rights Bill

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two documents circulated at the National Governors' Conference here list 33 governors favoring and 10 opposing the civil rights bill now pending in Congress.

At the urging of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, Democrat, governors opposed to the bill signed a petition which says the current bill "would restrict and destroy the right of trial by jury."

The petitions cropped up after the governors refused to consider acting officially on a two-paragraph resolution, which said in part:

Hatfield said his petition would be sent directly to President Johnson and to each member of the Senate. He termed it a statement of principle, similar to one the governors approved last year.

One of those who wanted a strong civil rights resolution was Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, a Republican. Commenting on the rejection, he said:

The governors split into three groups to talk over phases of civil rights. Gov. Matthew E. Welsh of Indiana on employment, and Gov. John A. Love of Colorado on public accommodations.

"We don't have the non-white employment problem in Alabama as do many states with fair employment practice laws," said Wallace. "Our non-white unemployment is 8.4 per cent—and there is only one FEPC state with a lower rate."

Rockefeller contended the reason is there has been a surge of emigration to the north of Negroes who lack the education and training for anything but unskilled jobs. The north, he said, hasn't enough unskilled jobs for Negroes and the south is getting industry to move out of the north because it offers lower costs and wages.

Ohio Seeking VA Site As Mental Institution

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ohio officials want the soon-to-be-vacated Crile Veterans Hospital in suburban Parma for a mental institution, says Martin A. Janis, Ohio mental hygiene director.

Janis said the project is still in an exploratory stage, but that Gov. James A. Rhodes has lent his support to the plan." However, Rhodes, attending the National Governors' Conference here, said Tuesday he hasn't received Janis' recommendation yet and declined further comment.

One Of Wealthiest To Occupy White House

Johnson Family Holdings Calculated At $9 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's family is "one of the wealthiest ever to occupy the White House," with holdings calculated at $9 million, the Washington Evening Star said today.

The fortune, the newspaper said, "was amassed almost entirely while Mr. Johnson was in public office; mainly since he entered the Senate and began his rise to national power in 1948."

The White House had no immediate comment on the story.

The Star noted the common version that the fortune is mainly due to Mrs. Johnson's acumen and energy in buying up a small, part-time, debt-ridden Austin, Tex., radio station in 1943 for $17,500 and developing it into a highly profitable TV-radio business.

"Mrs. Johnson," the newspaper continued, "doubtless has made impressive contributions. But there is strong evidence that Mr. Johnson himself has participated vigorously in the family business ventures.

"Mr. Johnson, it should be noted, owns no stock in the company which has title to most of the Johnson property and has provided the family with such amenities as limousines, an airplane, a cabin cruiser and the LBJ Ranch itself. A majority of the family company stock, 84.45 per cent, is owned by Mrs. Johnson and her daughters.

"Last Nov. 29, a week after Mr. Johnson entered the White House, the family relinquished control of the company by putting the stock into a trust.

"Since then, according to Washington attorney Abe Fortas, an old friend and personal legal adviser to the President, Mr. Johnson has not engaged in or discussed any family business. But in gathering material for this article, the Star has received allegations to the contrary."

The newspaper noted that during his first term in the Senate, Johnson was a member of the Commerce Committee which has jurisdiction over the Federal Communications Commission. The FCC, in turn, regulates all television and radio stations.

The latest FCC ruling affecting the Johnson family fortunes came this spring. As the Star put it, "the commission voted to continue probably fatal restrictions upon an Austin television cable firm which is competing with one allied with the Johnson company."

If Capital Cable, the firm allied with the Johnson interests, succeeds in driving its competitor out of Austin, Capital's eventual worth could be between $5 and $10 million, according to broadcasting industry sources.

And an option agreement entitles the Johnson company to buy half of Capital Cable at a price which would be well under a million dollars.

Ohio Osteopathic Assn. Installs New President

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Osteopathic Association has installed Dr. James E. Walker of Sandusky as its new president and named Dr. Jack Hutchison of Columbus as president-elect to take office next year.

The new president served as Erie County Coroner for two terms and is presently a member of the Sandusky Civil Service Commission.

The House of Delegates also elected Dr. Charles Purdum of Cleveland as vice president and three members to three-year terms on the American Osteopathic Association. They are Dr. George Cozma of Cleveland, Dr. Jack M. Wright of Toledo and Dr. Robert Kromer of Sandusky.

Wellsville Kiwanians Hear 2 Of Civic Group

The activities of the Wellsville Women's Civic Club were outlined by Mrs. Jean Broderick, president, and Mrs. Helen Welch, a member, at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Piatt's Tea Room.

Mrs. Broderick spoke on the functions of the organization and its aims. Mrs. Welch discussed the club's proposals for civic action. She read some of the proposals at the last meeting of City Council. Seventeen attended.

Cardinals' Hot Sadecki Stops Giants On Six Hits, 1-0

Bucs, Phils Split; Reds Nip Dodgers

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ray Sadecki certainly has matured quickly.

Two years ago he was being called a 10-year-old boy. Now Sadecki's 23—and the hottest pitcher on the St. Louis staff.

Sadecki gave still another indication of his transition Tuesday night, with a six-hit, 1-0 victory over Juan Marichal and the National League leading San Francisco Giants.

It was the first shutout of the season and the sixth straight victory as a starter for the onetime bad boy of the Cardinal staff.

Two years and four days before he had stepped to the mound against Cincinnati and faced just five batters. When he trudged off the mound, he had been tagged for five runs on two homers, a single and two of his own errors.

St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane, flushed with anger, cited Sadecki for acting "like a 10-year-old boy" and said his performance was "the worst exhibition of effort I've ever seen on a major league diamond."

Sadecki countered: "I don't see how I can pitch anymore for a guy like this," and said he was quitting the team.

Cooler heads prevailed and Keane and Sadecki wound up shaking hands. Sadecki also wound up in the minors.

Last year Sadecki returned and was 10-10. Then he got off to a quick 0-3 start this season. But he hasn't lost since as a starter, his one defeat coming in a relief role. His latest victory snapped a four-game St. Louis losing streak and cut the Giants league lead to one game over Philadelphia.

The Phillies split, ending a four-game skid with a 4-3 first-game victory before Pittsburgh rookie Steve Blass stopped them 4-0 on four hits in the nightcap.

In the only other single game, Cincinnati edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1. Houston defeated Milwaukee 6-5 and 4-1 while the New York Mets edged the Chicago Cubs 6-5 in 12 innings before losing 5-2.

Marichal, now 8-2, had allowed only three hits when the Cardinals finally struck for the game's only run in the ninth. Curt Flood started things with a single, moved up on a sacrifice and raced home on a single by Charley James.

Marichal collected two of the Giants' hits, but muffed a sacrifice in the third inning that probably cost a run. With Gil Garrido on second, Marichal missed a bunt and Garrido was thrown out at third. Harvey Kuenn then singled.

The Phillies broke through in the first game when Richie Allen hit his 11th homer, the first for Philadelphia in 75 innings. Art Mahaffey, however, couldn't hold a 4-0 lead and needed Ed Roebuck's relief help after Jerry Lynch closed the gap with a three-run homer.

Blass pitched his first major league shutout in the nightcap, bringing his record to 3-2 with heavy hitting support by Lynch and Bob Bailey. Lynch smacked a key two-run double for the Pirates and Bailey connected for a homer.

Gordy Coleman's homer in the second—the only hit off Dodger starter Joe Moeller in seven innings—and Marty Keough's eighth-inning single produced the Reds' runs. Cincinnatti starter Jim O'Toole allowed only two hits in seven innings but went out when Keough batted and the Dodgers scored their run against Sam Ellis.

Dick Farrel brought his record to 9-1 for the Colts with his sixth straight victory but needed Hal Woodeshick's ninth inning relief help. With one run in and two on, Woodeshick got Joe Torre to hit into a double play, and struck out Ed Mathews.

Don Nottebart won his first game after seven losses with a five-hitter in the nightcap. Bob Aspromonte hit his second homer of the night in the eighth inning—only the second hit off Bob Sadowski—and started a four-run surge that won it for the Colts.

The Mets won the opener against the Cubs when Jesse Gonder singled with the bases loaded in the 12th inning, capping a two-run rally. Larry Bearnarth pitched 7 1-3 innings of hitless relief ball and wound up the winner, with a six-hit, 10-inning performance.

Lew Burdette, acquired from St. Louis, won his first start for the Cubs in the nightcap. The decisive run came across in the sixth on a double by Billy Williams and Ron Santo's single.

Sevey's Post 11-1 Triumph

Facing only 24 batters and setting nine down on strikeouts, Bill Montgomery of Sevey's Drugs twirled a one - hit, 11-1 victory over Woodbine Laundry in the Pony League Tuesday at Dopler Field.

He surrendered only an infield single to Duffy in the second inning when the laundry entry scored its only run.

The win was the second in a row for Sevey's, as the drug store moved into a two - way tie for first place. Sevey's had shutout Litten's, 5-0, on Monday.

Led by second baseman McKinnon, Sevey's banged out 12 hits off Cunningham and Lovejoy of Woodbine. McKinnon got four hits, including a double, while Brown and Standley also got doubles. McKinnon batted in two runs with four hits in five trips.

In a second game, Littens beat Burbicks, 6-1, behind Finley who recorded eight strikeouts. Musuraca, with five strikeouts and seven walks, was the loser.

Berhar singled twice to account for all but one of the Burbick hits. Burbick's had four errors.

Pizarro Posts 7th As Chisox Win, 9-5

Tribe Halted, 5-1; Tigers Rip Twins

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don't feel sorry for J.C. Martin. Let Ray Katt, Gus Triandos, Joe Ginsberg and Charley Lau hand out the sympathy. They're the ones who know what it's like to try and catch the butterflies Hoyt Wilhelm throws.

Martin had one of those nightmarish evenings that all of Wilhelm's catchers experience now and then as the White Sox whipped the second-place Baltimore Orioles 9-5 Tuesday and extended their American League lead to 1½ games.

Juan Pizarro was breezing to his seventh victory with a 6-1 lead through seven innings and Martin was taking it easy while Camilo Carreon handled the big mitt.

Three Oriole hits in the eighth brought Al Lopez out of the Sox dugout on the run and he called for Wilhelm. When the veteran reliever got the high sign, it meant Martin had to go to work too and that's when the trouble started.

One of Wilhelm's flutterballs got away and Sam Bowens, who was on third, started for the plate. Martin, who is used to this sort of thing, made a quick recovery and Bowens pulled up short. J.C. fired to third to try and get the runner but the ball sailed into left field and the runner scored.

Moments later another Wilhelm knuckler fluttered away and moved Norm Siebern to third. He later scored on Al Weis' throwing error.

In the ninth J.C. allowed two more pitches to get by, setting up the Orioles' final run. In case you haven't been counting, that's three passed balls and a throwing error in two innings of catching Wilhelm.

In other AL games Tuesday, Washington swept two games from Kansas City 8-4 and 5-1, Los Angeles stopped Cleveland 5-1, Boston whipped New York 5-2 and Detroit walloped Minnesota 16-1.

Martin once said Wilhelm's knuckler "dances like it was something bewitched," but all he has to do is catch it. Pity the poor guys who have to swing against it.

The aging knuckler lowered his earned-run average to 1.50 with his 14th save as the streaking Sox won their 11th game in the last 15.

Pizarro, who ran his record to 7-2, had the key hit for Chicago, a two-run single in the five-run White Sox' fourth.

Chuck Hinton slammed six hits in the doubleheader for the Senators and ran his average to .350. Buster Narum and Tom Cheney went the distance to gain the victories. It was Cheney's first triumph since July 4 of last year.

Dick Radatz saved Boston's victory for Earl Wilson as the Red Sox tagged Al Downing with his second loss. It was Radatz' 29th appearance and 17th in Boston's last 26 games.

Don Demetre had three hits including two home runs for five RBI to pace Detroit's attack. Al Kaline also had three hits for the Tigers and raised his average to .298, a jump of 85 points in the last two weeks.

Bill Freehan also homered for Detroit and Harmon Killebrew tagged his 17th for the Twins.

Skins Trade Draft Choice For 2 Bears

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trader Bill McPeak, rebuilding his Washington Redskins under a "win or else" ultimatum, has all but shut up shop after swinging a deal for a much-needed pass receiver and a veteran defensive lineman.

The trade Tuesday brought end Angelo Coia and defensive tackle Fred Williams to Washington from the Chicago Bears in exchange for the Redskins' No. 1 draft choice next fall.

McPeak, who was told when he was signed for 1964 to produce a winner or he wouldn't be back for 1965, now has traded away four of the first 10 Redskins choices in the National Football League draft next fall.

He also has traded away some mighty familiar faces—quarterback Norman Snead, defensive end Andy Stynchula and halfback Dick James.

The Redskin coach-general manager told a news conference that the addition of Coia and Williams makes every position "pretty solid" for next fall. He added, "We don't have any glaring weakness."

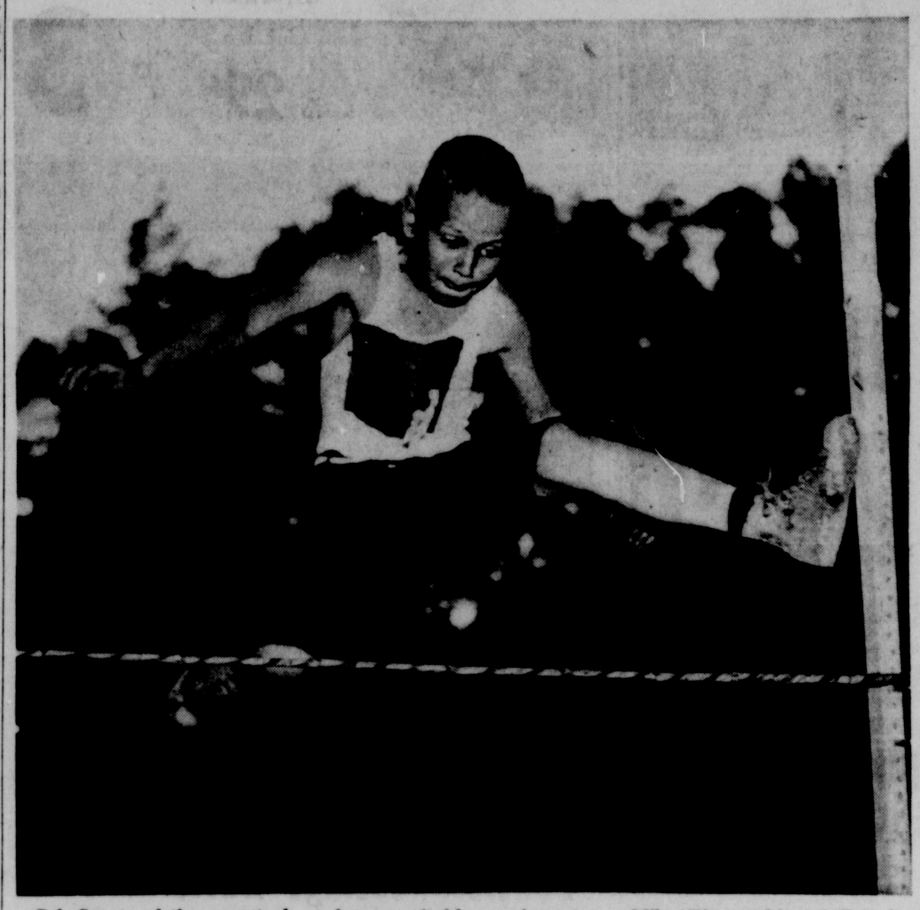

1919 All-American Heinie Miller Claimed

LONGPORT, N.J. (AP)—Henry (Heinie) J. Miller, All-America football end in 1919 at the University of Pennsylvania, died unexpectedly Tuesday at his home in this resort near Atlantic City. He was 71.

Miller, a retired insurance executive who lived here for the past 15 years, was born in Williamsport, Pa., and helped coach at St. Joseph's College, Temple University and West Chester State Teachers College after his graduation from Penn in 1920.

Cubs Scouts Participate

'Junior Olympics' Staged

One of the young competitors, bedecked with a "USA" insignia, clears the high jump bar in the picture.

Lending an international flavor to the "games" were the outfits worn by the youngsters. The majority wore white T-shirts tied with rope or a belt at the waist to resemble a tunic, and headbands were also sported by some entries.

Sam Parkes was chairman of the event and presented ribbons to the winners. Homer Dray was co-charman. William Jones was in charge of a roundtable session at a pavilion. Mrs. Mary Jones conducted the den mother's work session.

Mrs. Mary Simms won a cubbers roundtable prize. Pack 43 won the attendance award. Taking part in the "games" were Packs 7, 12, 31, 36 and 43. Guests included John Allison, chariman of the staff of commissioners, and Wayne Wilson, neighborhood commissioner. David O'Hanlon was in charge of the roundtable.

Four Man Relay — Pack 7, Pack 31, Pack 43 and Pack 36.

High Jump — Tipton (3-foot 4), Bentz, Simms and T. H. Fisher; Shot Put — John Celli and Jeffrey Morgan (50 feet), Dale Talkington and Dick Chema, Brenneman and Mark Hission.

Javelin Throw — Tipton (69 feet), Simms Reed Lencse and Fisher. Broad Jump — Tipton (11 feet 2), Simms, Brenneman and Jerry King.

Nash Strikes Out 19 In Hookstown's Win

Francis Nash registered 19 strikeouts in pitching Hookstown to a 10-6 victory over Frankfort in the South Side Hot Stove League Tuesday at Hookstown.

K. Of C. Team Wins

Wellsville Knights of Columbus posted a 14-12 victory over the 24-hour automatic laundry Tuesday in the Wellsville Minor League. Mike Jackson had three singles and a double for the losers. Gary Campbell doubled for the K. of C. entry.

Lawyers Stay Winless Club In Colt Loop

The squads battled through eight innings in the second game before darkness interrupted the action with the score tied at 7-7. It will be replaced Sunday at 1 p. m.

Rick Calhoun pitched four-hit ball to help Central win the first game, 5-4. This was make-up game and gave Central one-point in the standings. Carl Natalina, the losing pitcher, yielded only five hits.

Hall had two hits for Central, both doubles, while teammates Hanselman and Marchbanks also doubled.

The second game was battled to the wire. Shortstop Larry Ensinger helped the Lawyers stay in contention when he speared a ground ball up the middle and tossed a man out at second. Carl Natalina came through with an unassisted double play for the Lawyers.

Preisler Takes Lead In Pre-Senior Golf

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Ed Preisler, 53-year-old Cleveland golfer, fired a steady 37-37—74, two over par, to take an opening-day lead in the Ohio Pre-Senior Golf Tournament at Tipecanoe Country Club.

That gave him a two-stroke lead going into today's final 18 holes. Six men were tied for second at 76.

Tied for second were Loring Sheffield of Tipecanoe, 38-38; Paul Door, Zanesville 41-35; Dr. Earl Pennell, Dayton, 38-38; E. C. McFadden, Newark, 39-37; Pete Risser, Wooster, 36-40; and A. D. Medern, Cadiz, 39,37.

Wings Pick Manager, Coach Of Farm Club

MONTREAL (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League announced Tuesday the appointment of Eddie Bush as manager-coach of the Memphis Wings, Detroit's new farm club in the Central Professional Hockey League.

The announcement, made at the current NHL annual meeting, said Bush was given a two-year contract.

Bush, 45, had a long career as a player and was with the NHL Wings one season.

Banfield Has 3-Hitter In Chester Legion Win

Mike Banfield, 10-year-old pitcher for Chester American Legion Post 121, fired a three-hitter to send his team past Burbick's, 4-2, in a Little League fray Tuesday night.

The legion entry plated four runs in the fourth inning, with Craig Means driving in a pair and Joe Blankenship singling in the two that provided the win.

Joe Walker pitched Veteran Plate Glass to a 3-2 victory over Golden Star Dairy, allowing only four hits. He fanned six. Don Smith and Rick Eckles hurled for Golden Star, with Smith the loser.

Randy McVay and Steve Davis poked two hits for Veteran Plate. Bob Kinsey doubled. For Golden Star, Mike Lockhart led with a double and single, and Mike Ferrello tripled.

Sayre Electric Rallies To Edge VFW Post By 3-2

Sayre Electric rallied for a seventh inning run to squeeze past Chester VFW, 3-2 in the Chester City Softball League Tuesday night.

With the score tied 2-2 in the last of the seventh, Sayre's won as Mike Wilson drew a walk and advanced on a sacrifice fly and two singles.

Bud Hobbs drove in two of the runs for the winners with a home run in the third inning. Bryan, Hobbs and fleet Bob Gessford had two hits each for Hancock. Robinson and Bill Davis had base hits for the Merchants.

Featherweight King Gets Order To Rest

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Sugar Ramos, world featherweight champion, was ordered by his doctors Tuesday to rest for three months because of his hard fight with Floyd Robertson in Accra, Ghana, a month ago.

Ramos won a controversial 15-round split decision and retained his title, although the Ghana Boxing Commission announced they had reversed the decision and recognized Robertson as champion.

Luis Spota, president of the Mexico City Boxing Commission said that the doctors had ordered Ramos to avoid all boxing routine until September. He will be under medical supervision.

Midland Loses, 3-2

Midland USW 1212 lost to the Sharon Varsity Club, 3-2, in a softball game Sunday at Sharon. Chink McCauley lost a four-hit pitching performance. Midland had five hits, including two by Ray Crute. The losers committed four errors.

Rotary Hears Team Physician

Dr. Turner Explains Plan To Curb Grid Injuries

What's the best deterrent to athletic injuries?

"Prevention rates first," Dr. K. W. Turner told the Rotary Club at its noon luncheon meeting Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

For 12 seasons, he's been team physician for East Liverpool High School's football program, a job that becomes full - time on occasion.

He explained a five - point program of helping to deter injuries among the football players, including prevention, selection of proper equipment, selection of personnel, practice methods and actual medical care.

The job begins in the lockerroom and ELHS has one of the finest in the area, thanks to the Blue and White Nonpareil Club and volunteer service by Frank C. Dawson, Dr. Turner said.

Whirlpool baths, diathermy treatments, and ultra - sonic equipment have replaced for the most part the heat lamp and epsom salts baths used for years in treating injuries, he explained.

The Potter lockerroom lists the new equipment of this type, an investment of about $2,500. Much was donated.

Dr. Turner said he was "proud" of the type of gear used by the Potter varsity, paying tribute to the Boosters Club and "young, energetic coaches who revamped the supply." The equipment for the Junior High gridders is not quite as elaborate, but will be improved later, he pointed out.

The Potters wear the best helmets the school can afford. Padded helmets with a sling-type strap have proven superior to the suspension type, he said.

"We started using mouthpieces on an experimental basis four years ago, and in that time have not had a serious dental injury," he said. One boy suffered the loss of a tooth, but it turned out he was not wearing his rubber mouthpiece.

Dr. Turner explained a severe blow under the chin can cause a concussion. A Northwestern University study disclosed that a head-on collision of two players registers 5,000 pounds of shock, he added.

Shoulder pads properly fitted can eliminate serious shoulder injures. The Potters are required to wear rib and hip pads. Turning to footwear, Dr. Turner said low - cuts have been prohibited at ELHS since 1956.

"Low-cuts do not provide ample protection for immature boys, although they are okay for the professionals," the East Liverpool physician said. "Last year, we started on a program of having the boys wear high-top shoes styled to resemble a paratroop boot with a double strapping across the ankle. They did a beautiful job," he said.

He pointed out Potter halfback Earl Olmstead developed ankle trouble in his junior year, but played about every game as a senior when he wore the high-top shoes.

Selection of candidates also plays a part in eliminating injuries, he said, pointing out "not all boys are created equally in physical characteristics."

"Everytime we have had young, immature boys here, we have had a large number of injuries. In 1953, we had 30, the same in 1957, and 1961 was a catastrophe when only 32 were able to dress for the end of the year," Dr. Turner continued.

Injuries to a large number of sophomores means the gridders are losing a year of experience, he said.

Since 1959, he has maintained a different type health record for the football players. The charts list the boy's past injuries, whether he is "injury prone," or a "dogger," and provide space for special recommendations. The coach also receives a copy of the individual chart, and sets up special exercises for boys who have weak neck muscles or weak legs.

Actual practice methods have changed here towards less calisthenics, and more emphasis on developing weak muscles, running and timing. Less contact in practice "paid off" for Coach Bob Hedmond last year when his team scrimmaged only on Wednesdays and escaped serious injuries in the season, Dr. Turner said.

He cited as an example an Oak Glen player who suffered a bruise of the thigh and was treated with hot packs for six to eight weeks. The bruise remained and when examined by Charles Deshler, ELHS trainer, and Dr. Turner, the trouble was disclosed as a cup or more of undissolved calcium.

Dr. Turner also discussed treatment of concussions, shoulder separations, knee injuries, and ankle sprains, the latter which is often most difficult to diagnose due to the high number of ligaments in the ankle.

Dr. Turner, a graduate of Jefferson Medical School in Philadelphia, was introduced by Richard R. Crable, program chairman. Dr. Arthur Turner was a guest. Ralph A. Finley, president, presided.

Field Day Set

Snead Gains Berth In U.S. Open Classic

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Slammin' Sammy, the man who has won a hundred tournaments but never the Open, will be trying for the 24th time when 150 of the world's best golfers tee off next week in the blue ribbon American championship at the Congressional Club in Washington, D.C.

Snead was among 94 who qualified in final 36-hole tests Tuesday at Detroit; Woodmere, N.Y., Washington; Pittsburgh, and Fort Worth, completing the field for the championship proper June 18-20.

Others were less fortunate, including former winners Cary Middlecoff, Tommy Bolt and Lew Worsham and such well-known touring pros as Dave Marr, Bob Duden and Wes Ellis.

Sam, now 52 but still strong and active and a sentimental favorite every time he tees up the ball in the Open, made the grade easily at Detroit, where big George Bayer led a strong field of the tournament stars with a score of 68-70—138.

It was at Detroit that Bolt, the 1958 winner, shot a 77 for the first round, played 17 holes of the second and then left the course without taking off his spikes. Duden, the croquet-style putter from Portland, Ore., missed in a playoff of the 149 shooters.

Middlecoff, the golfing dentist who won the Open in 1949 and 1956, was a casualty at Woodmere, N.Y., where 36 qualifiers were led by the 230-pound Welshman, Dave Thomas.

Thomas shot the best 36 holes of the day with 68-67—135, leading such well-known players as Jay and Lionel Hebert, Doug Ford, Tommy Jacobs and Claude Harmon. Middlecoff missed at 148, as did Ellis, also 148, and Marr, the Masters runner-up, 147.

Other sectional leaders were Bill Garrett, 75-71—146, at Fort Worth; Tom Strange, 69-70—139 at Washington, and Chuck Scally 69-70—139 at Pittsburgh. Worsham, who beat Snead in a playoff for the Open crown in 1947, missed out at Pittsburgh.

Bullets And Pistons Swing 8-Player Trade

BALTIMORE (AP)—A monumental 5-for-3 trade with the Baltimore Bullets, involving such stars as Bailey Howell and Terry Dischinger, has given General Manager-Coach Charley Wolf of the Detroit Pistons a good start toward keeping a promise.

The promise, made at the end of last season, was that the Pistons would undergo at least a "60 per cent turnover" in personnel before they started a new National Basketball Association campaign.

Besides Howell, greatest scorer in Piston history, Detroit gave up veterans Don Ohl and Bob Ferry and their No. 2 and 3 draft chocies—6-foot-8 Les Hunter of Chicago Loyola and ballhandling whiz Wally Jones of Villanova.

Along wtih Dischinger, the 1963 NBA rookie of the year and a 20.8-points-per-game man last season, Baltimore dealt off rookies Rod Thorn and Don Kojis.

The Bullets finished fourth and the Pistons fifth in the league's Western half, but the management of both clubs contended Tuesday's deal, the biggest in NBA history, makes the future look rosy.

Bullet General Manager Paul Hoffman called Ohl, a good outside shot who averaged 17.3 last season, "probably the finest guard in the league" and noted that Howell has averaged between 17.8 and 23.4 over a five-year span during which he has totaled 8,182 points for a Piston career record.

Reds Sign Youngster, Sent To Tampa Club

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds' newest farmhand should really burn up the National League if he stays anywhere near his high school performance level.

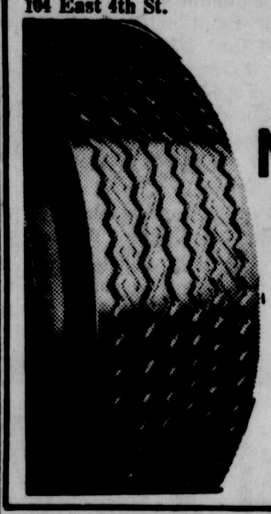

The Reds Tuesday announced signing a Cincinnati boy, Ron Jones, who was 8-3 as a pitcher and .402 as a hitter for Taft High School this spring. Jones is a switch hitter and throws right handed. He was assigned to the Reds' Tampa farm club.

Vets Club Plans Party

CLARKSON — The Senior Veterans Club of American Legion Post 290 of Columbiana will hold a dinner Thursday noon at the Clarkson Grange. Members of the executive committee of the Grange will serve. Proceeds will be used for Grange projects.

U.S. Golfer Advances In British Play

Most experts reckon that, along with 44-year-old Dale Morey of High Point, N.C., he's the American most likely to shoot down a few of the favorites before the tourney ends Saturday.

People around the golf clubs know all about Morey. He's a former Walker Cup player and won this year's North and South.

In Tuesday's second round, he chalked up the day's biggest victory—an 8 and 6 pasting of Orville Goens of Des Moines, Iowa.

Seven Americans have advanced to the third round, including 50-year-old John Penrose of Philadelphia, who is competing in his 10th British Amateur. Four more Americans play second-round games today, and if they're successful, will decide the third-round matches in the afternoon.

Franket's Loft Wins Homing Pigeon Race

Soldier Killed, Six Others Hurt In Wreck

SHARONVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Sgt. Robert W. Duell, 32, Tabert, N.Y., was killed Tuesday in a three-car crash on U.S. 42 just north of the Butler County line in which six other persons were injured.

State highway patrolmen said the injured included the afr force technician's wife and four children. Another car veered in the path of Duell's southbound automobile.

Was Cattle Rustlers, Now It's Bee Stealers

Glen Gibson, executive secretary of the American Bee Keeping Federation, said Tuesday bee hive thefts are on the increase. A single colony, he said, will bring as much as $30.

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Mrs. Vashti Flesher Wood, a native of Middleport, Ohio and a graduate of Ohio University, died Tuesday after a long illness. She was the wife of Wheeling publisher Austin Wood.

Minor Loop Win Goes To Potters Bank & Trust

Potters Bank & Trust Co. went into extra innings to gain an 11-8 victory over Roger's Drive-in in the Little Minor League Tuesday.

Potters scored one run in the sixth inning to gain a 6-6 tie, then brought home three in the seventh for the win.

R. Robinson, the winning pitcher, had seven strikeouts. Hall was the loser. B. Miller doubled and hit two singles, and Robinson had three singles for the winners. Fitch tripled for Roger's.

Pusateri's clipped M. & A. Motors, 13-9, with a 12-hit attack. Kevin Francis got the mound victory, fanning 10 and walking 11. Goodman, with seven strikeouts, was the loser. Putnum, Grafton, Lamping and Harvey had two hits for the winners, and Hanselman and Gill two for the losers.

Tri-State Appliance beat Potters Savings & Loan Co., 9-6. L. Parsons and nine strikeouts was the winner. D. Lawson doubled and singled, and T. Samples had a single for Tri-State.

Boy, 15, Recovering From 75-Foot Fall

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A 15-year-old Atlanta youth was recovering Wednesday from injuries after he fell from a 75-foot tower and spent three days in a wooded area before he was found.

Police said the clue that saved Eugene Harold Thrailkill's life was the knife he stuck in the ground at the tower's base before he started to climb it.

Seachers found the knife Monday night and concentrated the hunt in that area. Thrailkill was discovered Tuesday in dense underbrush.

Doctors said the youth suffuered a slight concussion, a dislocated hip, cuts and bruises. His condition was described as satisfactory.

Fire At Truck Stop Levels 3 Businesses

EATON, Ohio (AP)—A fire at a large truck stop complex on U. S. 40 north of here destroyed a restaurant, service station and garage before being brought under control early today, the Highway Patrol reported.

The patrol said the fire at the Sunset Truck Stop was believed caused by an explosion in the service station late Tuesday night. Several other small explosions occurred in the station as the fire burned.

No injuries were reported. No damage estimate was available.

The truck stop complex, on U. S. 40 three miles west of Lewisburg, also contains a motel, bowling alley and residence of the owner, William Lehrer, and his wife and two daughters.

Ricardo Carty, Milwaukee Braves rookie, hit two home runs in one turn at bat with Toronto last year. However, his first homer didn't count. The umpire had called time out.

Man Found Shot To Death And Woman Critical

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Highway Patrolmen early today found a man shot to death and a woman critically wounded in a car parked in a ditch along Ohio 72 between Cedarville and Clifton in Greene County.

The woman was identified tentatively as Retha L. Yancey of Springfield. She was taken to Greene County Memorial Hospital here with a bullet wound in the head and two in the chest.

The highway patrol said a special investigator was being called in from Wilmington in neighboring Clinton County to investigate the shootings. They said the two apparently had been shot with a small caliber rifle.

Man's Death Caused By Dog And Squirrel

Two men lifted the pipe. It touched a 7,500-volt power line and electrocuted one of the men. The other worker let go in time.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: My daughter's tennis racket is about 10 years old and the strings were rather loose. Naturally she wanted her racket restrung. This I would not agree to because the strings were perfectly good.

So I had my husband take a punch (looks like a short ice pick and I guess an ice pick could be used if you were careful not to bend it) . . . and stick it under the strings on the rim of the racket where they are woven back and forth.

As he stuck the punch under each string and pulled the string out a little bit, the slack was taken up.

We did this to about 12 or 14 of the strings . . . I could actually feel the strings get tighter.

We were careful not to force the strings or pull them too tight. They might break if you do.

DEAR HELOISE: Here is an idea I'd like to pass on to your readers: Those plastic-top, clear, cylinder - shaped prescription bottles are wonderful for holding the round bobbins you use on your sewing machine. They keep the thread from coming off and messing up your sewing drawer.

DONNA JOHNSTON.

DEAR HELOISE: Take the scissors and cut off the cuff of an old rubber glove. It makes an excellent jar opener!

DEAR HELOISE: Instead of using your tablecloths, shower curtains, etc., for picnic tablecloths, has anyone ever considered using a beach towel?

These towels are just a perfect size and one never has creases upsetting the paper plates and on windy days it stays put. All you have to do is throw it in the washing machine along with your other towels.

MRS. A. BACK.

DEAR HELOISE: While making hamburgers for my grandchildren the other day, I was in need of more hamburger — and since the meat was frozen, I took my grater and grated it. In just seconds, I had the meat ready to use.

Try it when in a hurry. It's great.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER?

DEAR GIRLS: Did you know that if you wash your sneakers in warm, soapy water the insides will come clean? This process must be done by hand so as not to disturb the outside dirt.

However, some of the outside dirt will be removed. This dirt can be replaced upon the first wearing after the washing. This is a time-tested method.

OHIO UNIVERSITY STUDENT.

DEAR HELOISE: I noticed in your column that a lady wanted to know how to remove discoloration from her white kitchen appliances and cabinets.

Buy a can of rubbing compound at any automobile store than handles wax, cleaners, etc. (There are several kinds under different brand names). This substance is rubbed on the paint of a car to remove grease and accumulated road haze.

Rub the discolored cabinets, but take it sort of easy as this compound will remove a little of the finish. Then with a soft, clean cloth remove the compound. After that apply a kitchen appliance wax which can be purchased at any supermarket.

My yellowed refrigerator and stove look just like new. Ladies, it really works and I have my darling husband to thank for it.

Hours for easier working methods and more leisure.

Be sure to spot test a hidden place on your appliance FIRST to see if the paint on your stove or refrigerator is applicable to the above treatment. We tried it on four different appliances and it worked beautifully with the particular brands and on finishes we tried.

HELOISE.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

On this date in 1801, Tripoli declared war against the United States.

On this date

In 1939, Britain's King George and Queen Elizabeth were guests of honor at the New York World's Fair.

In 1943, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the pay-as-you-go tax bill.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower said the serious worldwide threat of communism could not be stemmed by military strength alone.

Five years ago — United States aid to Poland was cut by 50 per cent from 1957 and 1958 in a sales and credit agreement signed by the two nations in Washington.

One year ago — President John F. Kennedy announced a new move by the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union to seek agreement on a treaty banning nuclear weapons tests.

Center fielder Albie Pearson of the Los Angeles Angels made his 2500th major league base hit this spring.

Ohio Pike Group OKs Link With Interstate 90

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike Commission has in effect approved a link-up of the east-west toll road and Interstate 90 by agreeing to negotiations on financing an interchange for the two superhighways just west of the turnpike's Lorain - Elyria interchange.

The talks between the commission, state highway department and U.S. Bureau of Public Roads will be called soon by highway director Pearl Masheter. He had asked the commission's concurrence in the proposed talks at Tuesday's meeting.

Interstate 90 and the turnpike are one and the same west of the proposed interchange, but to the east Interstate 90 will branch off through Cleveland and along Lake Erie into Pennsylvania for eventual connection with the New York Thruway.

American Culture Hit By Methodist Leader

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP) — "American culture has capitulated to pleasure, pills and popularity," says a Methodist church leader.

"The church stands on the sidelines indicted because of her detachment from society," Dr. Harry Baker told the Methodist Ohio Conference's annual meeting Tuesday.

Speaking to the 2,000 attending delegates, the Zanesville district superintendent said a question of the times could well be: "Which is your favorite supermarket where you will spend the Sabbath?"

Baker said that "too often we forget our chief purpose of winning people to Christ and then the church develops into a mutual admiration society."

The meeting which opened Tuesday, heard a report that membership in the conference, which covers southern and central Ohio has reached an all-time high of 342,095.

Shot Fired By Boy, 4, Fatal To His Father

The father, Leonard Thierry, 32, forced his son, Glen, to shoot him after threatening to spank the boy with a belt, police reported.

Thierry died Tuesday.

He and his wife had quarreled Sunday night. She left home. Thierry asked two of the couple's older children to shoot him in the head. They refused.

Glen also refused until threatened with the spanking.

AF Fires Missile It Selected At Random

VANDERBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The Air Force fired a missile it picked at random from among the nation's combat-ready Minuteman missile bases.

Crewmen fired it Tuesday—and it lifted off perfectly and streaked west down the Pacific missile range toward an undisclosed target area 5,000 miles away.

A Junior Editors Quiz About WORLD HISTORY

QUESTION: Who first discovered England?

ANSWER: It isn't possible to give an exact person and date for the discovery of England as one can give Columbus and 1492 for America. The earliest known inhabitants of England were the Iberians, a short, dark haired race, whose ancestors came from the Mediterranean Sea area in the Stone Age period and are thought to be the forefathers of the Italian and Spanish peoples (Spain is often called the Iberian Peninsula). At some unknown time these people spread to England, where they used some tools and later discovered the use of bronze. The remarkable ruins at Stonehenge, England, are probably remains of a primitive Iberian religious temple of some kind.

About 600 B.C. another race of people from the European mainland, the Celts or Kelts, invaded England. The first wave of these tall, war-like people, whose women fought along with the men, were the Gaels, who crossed to Ireland, and another group, the Brythons or Britons, became established in England, which became called Britain. Then came the Romans, in 40 A.D., followed later by Germanic tribes, such as the Angles, Saxons and Jutes. Fusion of these various pepoles produced the Anglo-Saxon or English race.

FOR YOU TO DO: We have purposely left out another most important race of conquering people who came from Europe. See if you can find out who they were.

Nurse Shortage Behind Hospital Crisis

The national turnover of staff nurses in hospitals in the United States is 67 per cent (as against 18 per cent for teachers). We are hearing and reading much about the shortage of nurses in hospitals. The other day I heard of a fine, modern hospital which recently added a number of rooms with generous, public contributions, but has not used these much needed rooms after several months for want of nurses. What a tragic plight!

Dr. Garry Myers

It is possible that recently you may have been one of the 25,000,000 annual hospital patients in our nation, where you learned of nurse shortage first hand.

—:—

YOU MAY not have had prompt bedside service, even at critical times. You may have seen other patients neglected; not because the nurses on duty didn't care or try to do their very best, but because there was a physical limit to how much they could do. There were just not enough nurses on duty.

When you saw your bill you probably were incensed by the size of it, especially for the room rent. In consequence, you may be one of the many persons in the community complaining of the high cost of service at the hospital.

You even may be one of the many persons who suppose and incorrectly report to others as a fact that the hospital is making a lot of money caring for sick and suffering persons.

YET A LOT OF people keep asking, "Why doesn't every hospital have enough highly trained nurses?" A simple answer is, "They are not paid enough." When the hospital administration decides on an adequate wage for nurses and tries to find the money to pay it, the conclusion is that, with cost of equipment, supplies and other services rising, the only way to accomplish this is to raise the room rent to the patient.

The problem remains for the public to be gradually educated concerning the facts.

Of the 367,000 graduate nurses serving in hospitals, about one-third are in supervisory or administrative services. These are not bedside nurses. Their average annual salary is less than $4,000.

Educational requirements for entering nursing training are rising, as in most other professions. More and more of the technical skills the physician used to perform are now delegated to the graduate nurse. Most of our nurses come from three-year hospital schools, only 10 per cent coming from college or university programs.

If the average ambitious hospital nurse wishes to go on in college training she must expend a lot of time and money. She may get but little college credit for her hospital education and training and probably will have to enter college as a sophomore.

SO FAR WE have been considering monetary rewards for nursing, and this reward seems to be growing as a sustaining force in a nation where money is more and more the measure of all values.

Many young people who would like to go into nursing, teaching, social work, the ministry or other such services are all too often told by parents and teachers that the pay will be much less than in other vocations and professions and the status will be lower.

But there are still some parents and teachers who encourage youth in their idealism. How do you see these problems?

Strike Averted For Time Being At Aluminum Co.

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—A sympathy strike at the Aluminum Co. of America's plants here and at six other sites throughout the nation has been averted for the time being.

Common Pleas Court Judge Howard Goldsberry issued a temporary restraining order Tuesday a few hours before some 200 workers at the Chillicothe plant planned to walk out.

Goldsberry said there could be no strike action until further notice.

Similar restraining orders were filed in six other cities where ALCOA plants were threatened with strikes.

The workers, members of the Aluminum Workers International Union, had been set to walk out at 11 Tuesday night in response to a national strike call in sympathy with a two-week walkout at Alcoa's Massena, N.Y. plant. The Massena plant has been shut down since May 23 by a strike over job reclassification.

Youths Ask Protection In Negro Voter Signup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Fourteen white youths who leave here today for Oxford, Ohio, to train for a summer civil rights project have asked Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy for protection while they help register the Negro vote in Mississippi.

The 14 are among 100 volunteers for the Mississippi Summer Project leaving here today. At Oxford they will attend a nationwide conference and train for their work.

Their request was made in a letter given to U. S. Atty. Cecil Poole for forwarding to the attorney general.

Dragging Continues In Search For Body

TROY, Ohio (AP) — Authorities planned a second day of dragging operations in a flooded gravel pit east of nearby Tipp City today in an attempt to find the remains of a woman's body. The search began Monday night after a fisherman, Robert Johnson, hooked the severed arm of a woman.

Dragging operations were resumed Tuesday, and SCUBA divers found the other arm but not the rest of the body. They had to quit searching about nightfall.

Authorities said the two arms appeared to be neatly severed at the elbows. Officials said they planned to send the two limbs to the Ohio Criminal Bureau of Identification at London.

Noted Briton Dies

LONDON (AP)—Lord Beaverbrook, 85, newspaper magnate and minister of aircraft production in World War II, died Tuesday. Beaverbrook, son of a poor Canadian clergyman, became a self-made millionaire in his 20s. He was born William Maxwell Aitken in Maple, Ont., and came to England in 1910.
